Summary

- The fisherman is unhappy with the prospective "Vishoper whom he addresses as ""Master."" He tells this "Master" of the dangers with fishermen daily do get to do fresh fish on the on sit Table and then complain "Master" that the fish are expensive.
- The poem can be seen as all speech true the fisherman has a conversation. There is also progression in the poem where the sea first as calm described and then changed to a sea that people death causes.

Message and theme.

Theme: Every human being must realize that life is expensive, especially that life of a fisherman. The sea also points to the way that life handles man, sometimes calm and sometimes stormy. It's also about the unreliance of those who are not really part of the process. Man complains easy if you didn't have to struggle with anything yourself.

Message: Man should never underestimate nature. It's more about the interaction between fisherman that does know and buyer that stands out.

Literary Transactions in South Africa Michael Chapman, 2025-04-03 A representative overview of some of the most pressing concerns in contemporary literary criticism in South Africa demonstrating literary form's shaping power in the interpretation of politically contentious content Rather than pressing literature into the service of a political cause or programme this study's purpose its politics of interpretation is to open literature to the potential of human experience in both the personal and the public life The society of focus South Africa is a society of political contestation Instead of prioritizing the what of contestation however Michael Chapman explores contestation through the how of the literary work In sharp transactions between an intransitivity of form and a compulsion to communicate the book elucidates an ethics of aesthetics in J M Coetzee and Nadine Gordimer and the best of modernism and the worst of modernism in Roy Campbell's poetry. It also asks: Can Themba's style of the shebeens in the 1950s be re-visited in a contemporary context of gender-based abuse? Why or how are Ellen Kuzwayo and Mtutuzeli Matshoba writing in the struggle years of the 1970s simultaneously less than artists and more than artists? Has the interpretative frame of the postcolonial best served fiction after apartheid? What language of interpretation best releases the voices of contemporary women's poetry: a poetry which in its play on identities and identifications looks both inwards to its locality and outwards to the globe? Alert to both South Africa's colonial past and its assertions of today, Literary Transactions in South Africa pursues the challenge of interpreting a literature of disjuncture between Africa and the West or the South and the North.
