Sia,2012-12-06 One of the controversial issQes which have recently come into prominence among philosophers and theologians is how one should understand the term l God It seems that despite the fact that a certain idea of God is assumed by not most people there is a degree of disagreement over the meaning many if of the term God is generally taken to refer to a supreme Being the Creator who is perfect and self existent holy personal and loving This understanding of God corresponds to what many have either been brought up to believe in or have come to accept as the meaning of this word Neverthe less theists appear to be defending a particular idea of God and to be accusing atheists of attacking another one which does not tie in with the theistic interpretation Cardinal Maximos IV for instance is quoted as saying The God the atheists don t believe in is a God I don t

believe in either 2 On the other hand atheists have been challenging believers to explain clearly what they mean by God because these critics cannot see how that idea can have any acceptable meaning Furthermore theists themselves seem to be divided over the issue H P Owen in his book Concepts of Deity shows quite convincingly that there is a bewildering variety of concepts of God among theists One has only to ask around for confirmation of this observation Report of the Commissioners Appointed in 1898 to Inquire and Report what Methods of Treating and Disposing of Sewage (including Any Liquid from Any Factory Or Manufacturing Process) May Properly be Adopted Great Britain.
