Policy Instruments for Environmental and Natural Resource Management Thomas Sterner, Jessica Coria, 2013-10-30

Thomas Sterner's book is an attempt to encourage more widespread and careful use of economic policy instruments. The book compares the accumulated experiences of the use of economic policy instruments in the U S and Europe as well as in rich and poor countries in Asia Africa and Latin America. Ambitious in scope it discusses the design of instruments that can be employed in any country in a wide range of contexts including transportation industrial pollution water pricing waste fisheries forests and agriculture. While deeply rooted in economics Policy Instruments for Environmental and Natural Resource Management is informed by political legal ecological and psychological research. The new edition enhances what has already been widely hailed as a highly innovative work. The book includes greatly expanded coverage of climate change covering aspects related to policy design international equity and discounting voluntary carbon markets permit trading in United States and the Clean Development Mechanism. Focusing ever more on leading ideas in both theory and policy the new edition brings experimental economics into the main of its discussions. It features expanded coverage of the monitoring and enforcement of environmental policy technological change the choice of policy instruments under imperfect competition and subjects such as corporate social responsibility bio fuels payments for ecosystem services and REDD. But Will It Fly? Iver P. Cooper, 2025-09-17. Conventional aircraft today are propelled by the action of propellers or jets and powered by the internal combustion of petroleum fuels in piston turboprop or jet engines. But other power sources powerplants and propulsion devices for airships as well as aircraft have been proposed and even experimented with over the last few centuries. The power sources considered include human muscles steam batteries nuclear reactors and hydrogen fuel and the propulsion devices include sails oars flapping wings rockets and cycloidal propellers. This meticulously researched book presents the history of these unconventional aerial power and propulsion systems explains the underlying science and technology behind them and assesses the crucial question of practicality. Automobile Engineer ,1947 Aircraft & Aerospace ,1991

Sustainable Aquaculture Production for Improved Food Security Kwasi Adu Adu Obirikorang, Mathis Von

Ahnen, Kwamena Quagrainie, Jemimah Etornam Kassah, 2024-11-22. Food security has been persistently recognized in global discourse as one of the world's main challenges. While some progress has been made towards ensuring access to safe nutritious and sufficient food for all people all year round SDG Target 2.1 or eradicating all forms of malnutrition SDG Target 2.2 over 800 million people are estimated to suffer from chronic hunger. With outputs from capture fisheries stagnating over the past few decades aquaculture holds the potential to play crucial roles in achieving food security but its importance for food security and nutrition has often been undervalued and concerns exist regarding its environmental footprint. The rapid expansion of aquaculture has consequences relating to environmental sustainability but aquaculture nonetheless holds the potential to significantly contribute to human food security. The goal of this collection is to highlight the contribution of aquaculture to food security through the development of sound and sustainable production practices The focus will include all three pillars of sustainability environmental sustainability production technologies that optimize fish production and or minimize significant environmental disruptions or impacts economic sustainability value chain analyses market access for fish products policy analysis and social and community sustainability socially responsible aquaculture practices contributing to food security and well being Aeroplane and Commercial Aviation News ,1949 Flight ,1948 Utilities Law Reporter ,1965 The United States Patents Quarterly ,2012-10 Report of cases relating to patents trade marks copyrights decided by Supreme Court of the United States United States Circuit courts of appeals District courts of the United States United States Court of Customs and Patent Appeals Court of Claims of the United States United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Commissioner of Patents and Patent Office Board of Appeals The Bookseller ,1961 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series Trade Theory for Motor Mechanics Edgar Samuel Swanepoel,1961*
