5 pages | 1145 words

Essay: Barack Obama's speech "Back to School" A good education is important for the society. If you have a good education, you can get out of poverty and break the social heritage and thereby help yourself and the society. This is some of the things Barack Obama enters in his speech. The speech was given at Wakefield High School in Arlington, Virginia on September the 8th in 2009. The sender is Barrack Obama - the president of the United States of America. He gives the speech to students in connection with the beginning of the new school year. The intention with the speech is to get the students to take responsibility for their education, themselves and take school seriously. The Presidents message to the students is that a good education is as important for their own future as for the future of the nation.

The speech is composed in a classic way! First comes the opening. "Hello everyone – how's everybody doing today?"(P.1 L1) Here Obama already tries to get at the same level as his audience, despite his status. Then he tells some background information's about his own childhood and schooling. Then all the argumentation comes and he makes it clear what the point of the speech is. At the end he sums up the main points, and makes the importance of an education quite clear for the students. This "construction" makes it really easy to follow and understand the speech and this is very impotent, when he is addressing the speech to younger people. All along Obama don't speak academically; he is really trying to reach the young audience. Obama makes good use of the classic Appeal form in his speech. He uses among other ethos that combined with his presidency gives reliability. Pathos he use, when he gives examples from his or Michelle Obama's own childhood. Such as in line 76-78 "Neither of her parents had gone to college, and they didn't have much. But they worked hard, and she worked hard, so that she could go to the best schools in this country." He appeals to their feelings by saying that she came from hard conditions, but despite this she did well. It is the good example he gives.

On page 3-4, he gives examples of a girl who could not speak English, when she started school. And a boy with brain cancer, and a girl that grew up in one of the toughest neighborhoods. But because they fought for what they wanted, they managed well. He tries through the good examples to say that you can break the social heritage and that everything is possible. Obama uses logos during the entire speech as he appeals to common sense with his audience. Like when he in line 49 says that "You can't drop out of school and just drop into a good job. You've got to work for it and train for it and learn for it." When he says that you must have an education to get a good job and that you have to work for it. This...
