The Minister's Charge; Or, The Apprenticeship of Lemuel Barker William Dean Howells, 2019-12-09 In The Minister's Charge Or The Apprenticeship of Lemuel Barker William Dean Howells intricately weaves a narrative that explores the complexities of personal growth and moral development within the framework of a small New England community. The novel employs a realist literary style characteristic of Howells's work, emphasizing detailed characterizations and social realism. Through the protagonist Lemuel Barker's journey from innocence to experience, Howells tackles themes of religious fervor, individual responsibility, and the tensions between personal ambition and societal expectations, all while reflecting the sociocultural milieu of late 19th-century America. William Dean Howells, often regarded as the father of American realism, was deeply influenced by his commitment to the principles of naturalism and the evolving American identity. His experiences as a newspaper editor and involvement with literary circles informed his perspectives on morality, society, and the complexities of human nature. These insights culminate in his portrayal of Barker's apprenticeship, mirroring Howells's own dedication to understanding the human condition through literature in a rapidly changing world. This compelling novel is a must-read for those interested in the evolution of American literature, particularly the realist movement. Howells's nuanced exploration of character and moral dilemmas invites readers to reflect on their own values and the societal constructs surrounding them, making it not just a narrative of personal growth but a timeless inquiry into the human experience.

The Expanding Discourse Norma Broude, 2018-02-23 A sequel to the pioneering volume Feminism and Art History: Questioning the Litany published in 1982, The Expanding Discourse contains 29 essays on artists and issues from the Renaissance to the present, representing some of the best feminist art historical writing of the past decade. Chronologically arranged, the essays demonstrate the abundance, diversity, and main conceptual trends in recent feminist scholarship.

Mimi Lucy Ellmann, 2014-01-01 It's Christmas Eve in Manhattan. Harrison Hanafan, noted plastic surgeon, falls on his ass. So far, so good. Ya can't sit there all day, buddy, looking up people's skirts, chides a weird gal in a coat like a duvet. Mimi. She kindly conjures for him the miracle of a taxi. Recuperating in his apartment with Schubert, Bette Davis, and a foundling cat, Harrison adds items to his life's work: a List of Melancholy Things, Walmart, puppetry, Velcro, whale eyes, shrimp, eating contests. But when he receives a dreaded invitation to address his old school, Mimi reappears with all her curves and chaos. She and Harrison fall emphatically in love. And as their love-making reaches a whole new kind of climax, the sweet smell of revolution is in the air.
