Offside Chance Southern Scrimmage English Edition:

Offside Chance Mercy Celeste, 2014-06-14 Judah Brody meets William Slater and it's love at first sight. Jude had spent his whole life in his famous brother's shadow. Returning to New Orleans seemed like a good idea now that Levi was back home. But Jude couldn't turn around without something of Levi's getting in his way. In this case it's Levi's best friend, a three hundred pound knuckle dragger named Slayer who likes strippers, football, porn, and making Jude's life miserable, not necessarily in that order. William Slater's season couldn't get much worse. He lost his house, his contract was set to expire, and his prospects of getting picked up by another team were slim to none. House sitting for his best friend was the only bright spot in an otherwise bleak New Orleans winter. Until Levi's stuck up nerd of a brother came to stay. A freak winter snow storm, deep familial secrets, and a whole lot of male-male bonding wasn't exactly in the game plan. But bragging rights were on the line, and there wasn't an offside chance in hell of this game going into overtime. Author's Note: Book three in the Southern Scrimmage series and should be read in order.

Bootleg Diva Mercy Celeste, 2016-06-19 All heroes need an origins story. From trailer park to the Super Dome, Everybody's All-American quarterback by day, infamous exotic dancer by night, Levi Brody is one of the undisputed greats of the game. With two Super Bowl rings, one MVP, three Pro Bowl appearances, three National Championships, three SEC Championships, and four State High School championships, Levi has indeed left his mark on the sport, but it's all a load of crap. This is my origin story, and like all good origin stories, this one lies somewhere between the helmet and the tiara. The story of the rise and fall of the first fictional gay quarterback in the NFL. Author's Note: I introduced Levi Brody in the second Southern Scrimmage book, Sidelined, and continued his story through his brother's eyes in Offside Chance. While this book is officially the fourth book in the Southern Scrimmage Series, it does not continue the story. Bootleg Diva is a biographical look at Levi's life through to the end of Offside Chance.
