 Thinking from A to Z is an indispensable reference tool Toward Natural Right and History Leo Strauss, 2022-12-22 Collected lectures and essays offering insight into the philosopher and his ideas on politics natural law and social sciences Toward Natural Right and History collects six lectures by Leo Strauss written while he was at the New School and a full transcript of his 1949 Walgreen Lectures These works show Strauss working toward the ideas he would present in fully matured form in his landmark work Natural Right and History In them he explores natural right and the relationship between modern philosophers and the thought of the ancient Greek philosophers as well as the relation of political philosophy to contemporary political science and to major political and historical events especially the Holocaust and World War II Previously unpublished in book form Strauss's lectures are presented here in a thematic order that mirrors Natural Right and History and with interpretive essays by J A Colen Christopher Lynch Svetozar Minkov Daniel Tanguay Nathan Tarcov and Michael Zuckert that establish their relation to the work Rounding out the book are copious annotations and notes to facilitate further study Autoethnographies in Psychology and Mental Health Alec Grant, Jerome Carson, 2024-09-30 This autoethnographic volume gathers a multiplicity of different voices in autoethnographic research from across psychology and mental health disciplines to address topics ranging from selfhood trauma emotional understanding clinical psychology and the experience of grief Edited by two leading figures this volume broadens the concept of psychology beyond its conventional mainstream academic boundaries and challenges pre-conceived and received notions of what constitutes psychology and mental health This book collects new autoethnographic writers in psychology and mental health from across as diverse a range of disciplines and in doing so makes a strong case for the legitimacy of subjectivity emotionality and lived experience as epistemic and pedagogic resources The collection also troubles the related concept of mental health In contemporary times this is either biomedically over colonised welcomed by some but resisted by others often regarded by lay and professional people alike in terms of an ordered or disordered binary comforting for some but associated with stigma and othering for others or at worst is reduced to a set of hackneyed memes the stuff of Breakfast television well intentioned and undoubtedly reassuring and helpful for some but patronising and naïve for others Overall the volume promotes the subjective and lived experiential voices of its contributors the hallmark of autoethnographic writing Autoethnographies in Psychology and Mental Health will be of interest to psychology and mental health students and professionals with an interest in qualitative inquiry as it intersects with autoethnography and mental health The Origins of Free Peoples Jason Caro, 2011-05-12 The Origins of Free Peoples posits demonstrates that free peoples are always being liberated and are never already free Free peoples make freedom paramount over justice equality or other value values The history of such peoples is different from their origins which are always underway as free people must construct both their history and their Others It is not simply that they become threatened they must face the correct kind of threat The book examines how freedom is discussed in classic and contemporary Anglo American texts which argue the notion that freedom is natural and needs only to be guaranteed by limited government Using a Continental and postmodernist approach the book offers an alternative conceptualization of the discourses and practices of freedom represented in the writings of theorists such as Locke Rawls Benn and Swanton With its distinctive position in the discussion of freedom The Origins of Free Peoples will appeal to social political theorists political philosophers as well as to those looking to understand the main factors needed to genuinely liberate a people

Communism, Political Power and Personal Freedom in Marx Levy del Aguila Marchena, 2021-11-23 This book investigates communism in Marx's writings incorporating a consideration of communist politics The author outlines the arguments by which it is possible to sustain from Marx the idea that human emancipation against capital also means the elimination of the State the public and the political dimension of praxis He also posits that the concrete tasks of the management of the common in a communist society require political mediations that allow us to confront the difference inherent to the personality of freely associated producers as well as the ontological finitude from which no technical power can evade Finally assuming Marx as a starting point whose work remains an inescapable source for thinking communism the book proposes a research agenda from Marx and beyond to continue in this imperative task Levy del Aguila Marchena is Senior Professor and Chair of the Department of Management Sciences at the Pontificia Universidad Catolica del Per He has published extensively on Marx political philosophy and applied ethics

Rethinking Pain in Person-Centred Health Care Stephen Buetow, 2020-12-30 This book explores how person centred health care could be refined to help persons alleviate pain related distress and construct pain as a potentially positive experience Rethinking Pain in Person Centred Health Care is a fascinating contribution to the multidisciplinary literature on person centred health care pain and ethics Traditionally Western intellectual culture has downplayed the intuitive and emotional promoting instead rational natural scientific perspectives Applied to pain an instrumental approach promotes the immediate and effective relief of pain due to the widespread suffering and expense it can cause However different persons experience pain in different ways and Buetow moves beyond a commitment to eliminate pain to exploring how benefits of pain could include creating and managing meaning from pain Rather than always looking to put pain behind them persons may flourish by moving around pain through pain into pain and above pain Buetow argues that this model depends on adopting a person centred approach to health care focusing less on the condition of pain and more on mobilizing the persons who present with and manage pain This book will be of interest to professionals and academics researchers in the fields of psychology and psychiatry who have a special interest in people with persistent pain conditions It will also be an invaluable resource for physiotherapists chronic pain
