

- Nine years war, 1689-1697. War fought largely in Flanders(? Double check)
- War of spanish succession, 1702-1713
- War of australian succession 1740-1748
- French and indian war (1754-1763) fought largely in north american territory, resulted in the end of france's reign as a colonial power in north america
- Strong leadership of William pit led britain to victory
- costs of the war led to discontent in the colonies and helped spark the american revolution

Navigation acts 1651 were an attempt by britain to dominate international trade

- Aimed largely at the dutch (netherlands)
- Banned foreign ships from transporting goods to british colonies and from transporting goods to britain from elsewhere in europe
- Britain needed more revenue after the french and indian war to pay off war debt, defend expanding empire, and govern 33 far away colonies - so britain passed additional laws to generate revenue

Triangular trade

- Began in colonies with ships setting off for Africa carrying rum
- In africa, rum was traded for gold or slaves
- Ships went from africa to west india, trading slaves for sugar/molasses/other
- Ships returned to colonies with sugar/molasses to make more rum
- Molasses molasses act of 1733, colonists and britain didn't care

Salutary neglect- relax enforcement of strict regulations, particularly trade laws, imposed on american colonies

-development of local gov in america gave colonists a different view of the structure and role of gov

More colonists born in american soil meant less of a connection to britain

Colonists could govern on domestic issues, but Britain controlled international issues

Colonists began to practice representative gov- representatives chosen by male property owners

Acts of British parliament

- Sugar act, 1764 - required taxes to be collected on molasses brought into the colonies, gave british officials the right to search homes of anyone suspicious
- Stamp act, 1764 - taxed printed materials such as newspapers and legal docs. Protests led for this to be repealed in 1766

Testing Teacher Candidates National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and

Social Sciences and Education, Board on Testing and Assessment, Center for Education, Committee on Assessment and Teacher Quality, 2001-10-19 Americans have adopted a reform agenda for their schools that calls for excellence in teaching and learning. School officials across the nation are hard at work targeting instruction at high levels for all students. Gaps remain however between the nation's educational aspirations and student achievement. To address these gaps, policy makers have recently focused on the qualifications of teachers and the preparation of teacher candidates. This book examines the appropriateness and technical quality of teacher licensure tests currently in use, evaluates the merits of using licensure test results to hold states and institutions of higher education accountable for the quality of teacher preparation and licensure, and suggests alternatives for developing and assessing beginning teacher competence. Teaching is a complex activity. Definitions of quality teaching have changed and will continue to change over time as society's values change. This book provides policy makers, teacher testers, and teacher educators with advice on how to use current tests to assess teacher candidates and evaluate teacher preparation, ensuring that America's youth are being taught by the most qualified candidates.

Journeys in Social Education: A Primer C. White, 2011-07-23 Social education is quite a journey. Given the ongoing debate and struggle with defining social education, the following is at present a working definition. While we resist defining social education, we believe that social education emphasizes three areas of study: critical pedagogy, cultural media studies, and social studies education. We also stress that education, interpreted broadly, has the potential to advance social justice. Thus, emerged social education, a lifelong journey for all of us to question, to challenge, to do, and to create. Connecting present and past, merging current issues with traditional curriculum, integrating alternative texts and perspectives, empowering and emancipating kids and educators, and transforming schools and society, the transgressions of social education scream out. Dewey, Freire, Kincheloe, Zinn, Greene, Giroux, Apple, hooks, McLaren, Kozol, Loewen, Said, Chomsky, even Bob Dylan and many others have provided the impetus. May we make them proud. The essays within this text demonstrate various journeys in social education. They are meant as stories, not maps or scripts. They are intended to serve as a primer of sorts for those interested in a similar journey. Hopefully, this can be a meaningful experience for many students, educators, parents, and society as a whole, of course. Well, the journey and struggle continues.
