Alastair McKenzie's GST A Practical Guide is widely considered to be the authoritative New Zealand text on goods and services tax. In addition to covering the broad framework and operation of GST in New Zealand, the book provides in-depth coverage of special problem areas and contentious issues regarding the application of the Goods and Services Tax Act 1985. The ninth edition has been comprehensively updated to incorporate the new legislative regimes for input tax apportionment of input tax adjustments and the zero rating of land transactions which came into force in 2011. It also encompasses other legislative developments, case law, and IRD rulings and statements that have been released since the publication of the eighth edition in 2008.

The Taxation of Corporate Groups Under Consolidation Antony Ting, 2013. Antony Ting presents the first comprehensive comparative study of the tax consolidation regimes adopted in eight countries.

Charity Law Juliet Chevalier-Watts, 2017-09-14. This work provides an analytical and comparative analysis of the development of charity law as well as providing a critical commentary on a number of contemporary changes within the charity law field across a range of common law jurisdictions. The book follows earlier studies which cover a similar and traditional jurisdictional spread but which are now dated. It further considers in detail charity law issues within Hong Kong and Singapore about which there has been historically more limited charity law discussion. The area is growing in terms of practical legal and academic interest.

You Can Do It Yourself Investor's Guide Charlie Emery, 2013-03. Charlie Emery has been an active self-taught investor for over twenty years. He has invested in his 401k plan at work as well as regular and Roth IRAs. He has learned the hard way by trial and error what does and doesn't work. Building on that experience, You Can Do It Yourself Investor's Guide seeks to help today's working investor, most of whom will not have a traditional pension plan to fall back on when they retire. If you are familiar with or willing to learn to work with a spreadsheet program like Excel, you can chart your own investments effectively. By spending a few hours each week managing your own investments and following a disciplined plan of action for your investments, you can plan for your long-term financial health. Emery also provides a top-down plan for the ETF investor who doesn't have a lot of time or money to spend managing their portfolio, along with a bottom-up plan that takes a little more time but offers better rewards. This helpful guide can help you make your way past the financial planners and investment advisors who promise you big returns but rarely deliver on their promises. You can manage your own investments and plan your financial future effectively. The time to start is now.
