Clinical and Observational Psychoanalytic Research Rosemary Davies, 2018-03-22 Few topics elicit greater controversy within psychoanalysis today than the role of research in justifying or expanding upon analytic theory The text collects papers from a London conference along with additional material to explore the work of discussants Daniel Stern and Andre Green Stern whose work and psychoanalysis and infant observation is world renowned and Green the French psychoanalyst whose trenchant views on the limitations of research are equally well known each focus on the issue of infant research and its long history within the psychoanalytic movement Additional discussions by three prominent British psychoanalysts Anne Alvarez Irma Brenman Pick and Rozine Jozef Perelberg expose a different point of view from that of green and Stern Also included is a previous debate on this topic between Andre Green and Robert S Wallerstein former president of the International Psychoanalytic Association An illuminating introductory chapter by Riccardo Steiner further describes the main points of the debate with marvelous clarity This book will be invaluable for all those who wish to involve themselves with contemporary views on this important topic Writing in Knowledge Societies Doreen

Starke-Meyerring, Anthony Paré, 2011-11-15 The editors of WRITING IN KNOWLEDGE SOCIETIES provide a thoughtful carefully constructed collection that addresses the vital roles rhetoric and writing play as knowledge making practices in diverse knowledge intensive settings The essays in this book examine the multiple subtle yet consequential ways in which writing is epistemic articulating the central role of writing in creating shaping sharing and contesting knowledge in a range of human activities in workplaces civic settings and higher education Consumer Research Morris B.

Holbrook, 1995-06-09 Once again Morris B Holbrook has combined insightful commentary on the field of consumer behavior with a readable and enjoyable writing style A must read for anyone interested in the latest thinking in the field Ron Hill Professor and Chair of Marketing Villanova University A delightfully idiosyncratic history of consumer research What enthralled readers will get from his stylish exposition is a socio psychocultural description of the consumer through the ages along with a description of attempts to understand the consumer Scholarly yet readable Holbrook s history is a classic study of consumerism too Editor s Choice Business Today In recent years consumer research has emerged as an academic specialty of growing concern to marketing scholars and of increased importance on today s university campuses Courses on consumer behavior taught in virtually every academic program of business or management draw heavily on work by consumer researchers. Despite this wide and growing recognition as an emergent area of study, no book appears to exist on the history, nature, and types of consumer research, or on the variegated and often hotly debated issues that surround this field of inquiry. Consumer Research fills this gap by providing an account of the recent historical developments in consumer research and by showing how the evolution of this discipline has affected the research. The author offers a personal and subjective glance at how various changes in the field have come about and how they have shaped studies of consumption. Marketing scholars, graduate students, and upper-level undergraduates concentrating in marketing will find Consumer Research irresistible reading.

Resources in Education, 1993-11. How Not to Travel Norman L. Lofland, Betty J. Lofland, 2019-10-31. Norman L. Lofland and Betty J. Lofland share the lessons they learned traveling, teaching, and living abroad in their memoir How Not to Travel. The couple started their teaching careers at Bethel College, a Mennonite liberal arts college in North Newton, Kansas. In 1963, interesting adventures developed after a travel agent friend inspired them to apply for jobs in Beirut, Lebanon. The Loflands never imagined that they would end up teaching four decades abroad. Their adventures included meeting the Shah of Iran, having an audience with Colonel Muammar Khaddafi, interacting with Yasser Arafat before the Israelis bombed the Palestinian headquarters, driving a Karmann Ghia from Beirut to London and back, as well as from Beirut to Tehran and back, designing a theatre in Tehran with Frank Lloyd Wright's Taliesin West architects, and perhaps most important, exchanging ideas with students in Lebanon, Iran, Tunisia, China, Macau, and North Cyprus. Join the Loflands as they recall the highs, the lows, and the life lessons they learned amid the reality of war, revolution, and exotic living.
