Reframing Immigrant Resistance Teresa Cappiali, 2021-12-24 The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license This book focuses on the political participation and grassroots mobilization of immigrants and racialized communities in the European context Based on extensive data collected in Italy it explores the role that alliances among pro immigrant groups play in shaping political participation asking why and how immigrant activists mobilize in hostile environments why and how they create alliances with some white allies rather than others and what might explain variations in forms of political participation and grassroots mobilization at the local level Using social movement critical race and post colonial theories the author examines the ways in which both institutional and non institutional actors including immigrant activists become involved and compete in the local arena over immigration and integration issues and assesses the mechanisms by which both conventional and non conventional forms of participation are made possible or obstructed By placing immigrant activists at the center of the analysis the book offers a valuable and novel insider perspective on political activism and the claims making of marginalized groups It also demonstrates how pro immigrant groups can play a role in racializing immigrant activists A study of the effects on participation in social mobilization of coalitions conflicts and racialization processes among pro immigrant groups and immigrant activists this volume will appeal to scholars of sociology political science and political sociology with interests in migration ethnic and racial relations social movements and local governance

Celtic from the West 3 John T. Koch, Barry Cunliffe, 2016-09-01 The Celtic languages and groups called Keltoi i.e. Celts emerge into our written records at the pre Roman Iron Age The impetus for this book is to explore from the perspectives of three disciplines archaeology genetics and linguistics the background in later European prehistory to these developments There is a traditional scenario according to which Celtic speech and the associated group identity came in to being during the Early Iron Age in the north Alpine zone and then rapidly spread across central and western Europe This idea of Celtogenesis remains deeply entrenched in scholarly and popular thought But it has become increasingly difficult to reconcile with recent discoveries pointing towards origins in the deeper past It should no longer be taken for granted that Atlantic Europe during the 2nd and 3rd millennia BC were pre Celtic or even pre Indo European The explorations in Celtic from the West 3 are drawn together in this spirit continuing two earlier volumes in the influential series N6 Office Practice, 2019
