Salut Cubains Agns Varda:

Agnès Varda Agnès Varda, 2014 Collected interviews with the French filmmaker who is sometimes called the Mother of the New Wave Agnès Varda Kelley Conway, 2015-11-15 Both a precursor to and a critical member of the French New Wave Agnès Varda weaves documentary and fiction into tapestries that portray distinctive places and complex human beings Critics and aficionados have celebrated Varda's independence and originality since the New Wave touchstone Cleo from 5 to 7 1962 brought her a level of international acclaim she has yet to relinquish Film historian Kelley Conway traces Varda's works from her 1954 debut La Pointe Courte through a varied career that includes nonfiction and fiction shorts and features installation art and the triumphant 2008 documentary The Beaches of Agnès Drawing on Varda's archives and conversations with the filmmaker Conway focuses on the concrete details of how Varda makes films a project's emergence its development and the shifting forms of its screenplay the search for financing and the execution from casting through editing and exhibition In the process she departs from film history's traditional view of the French New Wave and reveals one artist's nontraditional trajectory through independent filmmaking The result is an intimate consideration that reveals the artistic consistencies and bold changes in the career of one of the world's most exuberant and intriguing directors The Cinema of Agnès Varda Delphine Benezet, 2014-05-20 Agnès Varda a pioneer of the French New Wave has been making radical films for over half a century Many of these are considered by scholars filmmakers and audiences alike as audacious seminal and unforgettable This volume considers her production as a whole revisiting overlooked films like Mur Murs Documenteur 1980 81 and connecting her cinema to recent installation work This study demonstrates how Varda has resisted norms of representation and dictates of production It also shows how she has elaborated a personal repertoire of images characters and settings which all provide insight on their cultural and political contexts The book thus offers new readings of this director's multifaceted career arguing that her work should be seen as an aesthetically influential and ethically driven production where cinema is both a political and collaborative practice and a synesthetic art form The Sustainable Legacy of Agnès Varda Colleen Kennedy-Karpat, Feride Çiçekoglu, 2022-03-24 Drawing especially on the encounters and relationships that defined her exceptional career The Sustainable Legacy of Agnès Varda outlines a sustainable legacy for the celebrated director and visual artist Over nine chapters it unpacks how creation connection and environment form the core of Varda's artistry which centers foremost on relationships with her family with other artists even with passersby she would meet in her travels around the world Also celebrating her feminist legacy the chapters cover a wide range from the classic Cleo from 5 to 7 1962 to documentaries The Beaches of Agnès 2008 and Faces Places 2017 as well as selected art installations The book's final section is dedicated to teaching Varda's work here ten scholars from around the world consider how Varda's art and feminist pedagogies offer unique ways to bring crucial concepts into the classroom By seeking a sustainable praxis to discuss and teach Varda's work and by making pedagogical concerns an explicit part of this approach this book argues that Varda's insights about the nature of creative work will inspire new generations of viewers and audiences Agnes Varda Alison Smith, 2019-01-04 The first introduction in English devoted wholly to Varda and aimed at a general and student audience Places Varda's major films in the context of her whole oeuvre and follows the development of important themes across her work A Medium Seen Otherwise Roger Hallas, 2023 Through a new look at how political historical and art documentaries engage with photographic images objects and archives A Medium Seen Otherwise argues that film allows us to better understand what people do with analog and digital photographs as material objects that enable social and political relations through multisensory experience Moreover as a time based medium with sound film can bring the event of photography into fuller view demonstrating how no single participant in it photographer subject camera photograph or viewer has sovereignty over its affect meaning or value The book thus explores the ways in which the innovative incorporation of photography into documentary film permits us to see both of these media otherwise Photographs whether professional or vernacular are conventionally understood to furnish documentaries with indexical evidence and visual illustration of history yet the spatio temporal and aural dimensions of film permit documentaries to illuminate photography's wider capacities beyond the merely representational Combining new critical perspectives on well known documentary filmmakers and photographers Agnès Varda Rithy Panh Edward Burtynsky Malick Sidib Vivian Maier JR Ken Burns Errol Morris and Akram Zaatari with analyses of lesser known but important documentaries author Roger Hallas investigates a global range of documentary and vernacular photographic contexts including Lebanon Palestine Mali Congo Cambodia Ireland Spain Mexico Chile Canada and the US While authorship and representation remain common rhetorical frameworks for documentaries about photography A Medium Seen Otherwise offers a compelling account of how the intermediality between documentary film and photography can posit far more expansive conceptions of both media A companion website shows clips of films discussed in the book
