

2015 Sports Awards Speech

Good Evening, as my good friend and classmate, John O'Brien, mentioned, my name is Vincent LaPuma and I graduated Cathedral in 2001. When John asked me to give this speech, I admit, I was a bit hesitant. Hesitant because I am not a fan of public speaking, I never have been. I thought about it for a few days. I remembered sitting in the very seats that you are all sitting in tonight. I remembered working hard throughout the year and looking forward to the sports awards dinner. I came to the conclusion that I owed it back to Cathedral to give the speech. For all that Cathedral for me while I was here and since I graduated.

I want to speak to you tonight about being an underdog and being looked at differently by others. Two stereotypes that are almost always associated with being a Cathedral Man. I am going to speak about my family and myself as an example of that and how being a Cathedral man helps you overcome anytime you feel like that underdog, or when you feel like everyone else looks at you differently.

I grew up in Maspeth, Queens. That was where my parents bought their first home and still live in to this day. My parents migrated to New York from Sicily in the early 1970's. Not knowing English, my mother and her sisters attended Long Island City High School while my grandfather worked in the fire proofing union and my grandmother in a garment factory. Not being able to speak the language put them at an immediate disadvantage-Underdogs. They were ridiculed, teased, even abused physically at times, but they never quit. They forged on learning the English language enough to get by and achieve their goal, to graduate high school.

Everything They Had David Halberstam,2024-09-24 Sometimes sports mirrors society sometimes it allows us to understand the larger society a little better But mostly it is a world of entertainment of talented and driven young men and women who do certain things with both skill and passion David Halberstam David Halberstam was a distinguished journalist and historian of American politics He was also a sports writer Everything They Had brings together for the first time his articles from newspapers and magazines a wide ranging collection edited by Glenn Stout selected over the full scope of Halberstam s five decades as one of America s most honored journalists These are dazzling portraits of some of the most compelling sports figures of our era the superstars of popular sports like basketball football and baseball but also fishing soccer and rowing and the amateur athletes who play for the love of the game In My Dinner with Theodore Halberstam recounts his long anticipated and unforgettable meeting with Red Sox legend Ted Williams Against the backdrop of 1960s Nashville he beautifully recounts a lifelong love of football in How I Fell in Love with the NFL And Men Without Women set on a fishing expedition in Patagonia is more than a hunt for giant brown trout it is a story of fishing friendship and fellowship These and many more stories exemplify the breadth and depth of David Halberstam s devotion to diverse sports and his respect and fascination for the men and women who play them so well The result is an intimate and personal collection that reveals the issues and the ideals David Halberstam cared about racial equality friendship loyalty and character and creates a vivid and unforgettable portrait of the author himself Everything They Had takes its rightful place alongside Halberstam's bestselling sports titles which include The Breaks of the Game The Amateurs Summer of 49 and The Education of a Coach Nice Girls Finish First Mark Bradford, 2001-11-19 With impressive skill irrepressible spirit and more than a touch of class the 2000-01 Notre Dame women's basketball team reached the pinnacle of college basketball and forever secured a place in the storied sports history of the university and in the hearts of thousands of fans The senior leadership of Naismith Award winner Ruth Riley Niele Ivey and Kelley Siemon combined with the exciting and capable play of underclassmen such as Alicia Ratay and Ericka Haney emphatically spells C H A M P I O N S These Lady Irish practiced and played with relentless resolve endured injuries and setbacks balanced emotions and studies and nurtured bonds on and off the court giving new meaning to the words dedication and teamwork Nice Girls Finish First is the behind the scenes story of this remarkable group of young women who with a goal firmly in mind set a shining and enduring example of how to achieve in college athletics with grit and grace The Shofer, 1936 The Origins of the Jump Shot John Christgau, 1999-01-01 Looks at basketball's evolution and the supposed inventors of the jump shot Ghosts of Jim Crow F. Michael Higginbotham, 2013-03-18 Higginbotham provides a thoughtful and perceptive discussion on the role of race in America today His keen legal analysis and compelling narrative has resulted in a fascinating examination of how far we have come as a nation but more importantly of how far we have to go Barbara A Mikulski U S Senator for Maryland When America inaugurated its first African American president in 2009 many wondered if the country had finally become a post racial society Was this the dawning of a new era in which America a nation nearly severed in half by slavery and whose racial fault lines are arguably among its most enduring traits would at last move beyond race with the election of Barack Hussein Obama In Ghosts of Jim Crow F Michael Higginbotham convincingly argues that America remains far away from that imagined utopia Indeed the shadows of Jim Crow era laws and attitudes continue to perpetuate insidious systemic prejudice and racism in the 21st century Higginbotham's extensive research demonstrates how laws and actions have been used to maintain a racial paradigm of hierarchy and separation both historically in the era of lynch mobs and segregation and today legally economically educationally and socially Using history as a roadmap Higginbotham arrives at a provocative solution for ridding the nation of Jim Crow's ghost suggesting that legal and political reform can successfully create a post racial America but only if it inspires whites and blacks to significantly alter behaviors and attitudes of race based superiority and victimization He argues that America will never achieve its full potential unless it truly enters a post racial era and believes that time is of the essence as competition increases globally F Michael Higginbotham is the Wilson H Elkins Professor of Law at the University of Baltimore School of Law He is the author of Race Law Cases Commentary and Questions Caduceus of Kappa Sigma, 1913
