Invalid Modernism Michael Davidson, 2019-01-04 Invalid Modernism contributes to an intersectional moment in disability studies by looking at modernist aesthetics through a defamiliar body It also offers an intersectional understanding of modernism by studying the representation of physical and cognitive difference during a period marked by progressive reforms in health labor and welfare Readings of texts by Henry James Samuel Beckett Virginia Woolf William Carlos Williams James Joyce Djuna Barnes Oscar Wilde F T Marinetti Jean Toomer an opera by Alexander Zemlinsky and paintings and constructions by dadaists and surrealists are set against the historical developments in sexology medical discourse and the pseudo sciences of eugenics and anthropometry Modernist works are well known for challenging formal features of narration and representation but it is seldom observed that this challenge has often been enabled by figures of shell shocked veterans tubercular heroines blind soothsayers invalid aesthetes and neurasthenic women Such figures complicate an aesthetics of autonomy by which modernism is often understood Since its evolution in the eighteenth century aesthetics has been seen in terms of judgments based on detached appreciation What begins as a highly privative sensate response to an object or natural formation results in a disinterested judgment about the value of that response By looking at modernist aesthetics through a disability optic Invalid Modernism attempts to restore the missing body to aesthetics by disclosing a structure of feeling around dramatic changes in modernity These changes are registered on and through the bodies and minds of figures considered in medical discourse of the period as invalid citizens and subjects

American Little Magazines of the Fin de Siecle Kirsten MacLeod, 2018-03-01 In American Little Magazines of the Fin

de Siecle Kirsten MacLeod examines the rise of a new print media form the little magazine and its relationship to the transformation of American cultural life at the turn of the twentieth century Though the little magazine has long been regarded as the preserve of modernist avant gardes and elite artistic coteries for whom it served as a form of resistance to mass media MacLeod s detailed study of its origins paints a different picture Combining cultural textual literary and media studies criticism MacLeod demonstrates how the little magazine was deeply connected to the artistic social political and cultural interests of a rising professional managerial class She offers a richly contextualized analysis of the little magazine s position in the broader media landscape namely its relationship to old and new media including pre industrial print forms newspapers mass market magazines fine press books and posters MacLeod s study challenges conventional understandings of the little magazine as a genre and emphasizes the power of little media in a mass market context The Visual Dictionary of Typography Gavin Ambrose,Paul Harris,2010-10-04 Arranged alphabetically from abstraction to x height and blackletter to widow each term is explained and contextualised with illustrations Marking Whiteness Sonita Sarker,Jennifer Nesbit,2025-09-01 The collection is divided into three parts to address the practices of Whiteness in modernist studies Aesthetics Intersectionality and Inter disciplinary Practice We begin with aesthetics because modernism is the aesthetic produced in dynamic relation to the cultural formations of modernity perceived rapid changes in labor transportation technology and perceptions of body mind and even character Essays in this section examine how the production of Whiteness is baked in as a positive value in assessing the value of cultural production The second section focuses on the embodiment of Whiteness primarily through the gendered and racialized female body as a deflective practice that unmarks Whiteness while making it central to cultural crises around morality national borders and futurity The third section considers the tacit prioritization of Whiteness as a positive value through institutional structures and pedagogical practice these case studies ruminate on the generative potential of isolating and marking these effects In each essay scholars examine the stakes of marking Whiteness as a category of analysis distinct from yet wholly imbricated with racial categorization given the potential for reification inherent in all strategies of marking The Chinese May Fourth Generation and the Irish Literary Revival: Writers and Fighters Simone O'Malley-Sutton,2023-10-06 This book examines how the early twentieth century Irish Renaissance Irish Literary Revival inspired the Chinese Renaissance the May Fourth generation of writers to make agentic choices and translingual exchanges It sheds a new light on May Fourth and on the Irish Renaissance by establishing that the Irish Literary Revival 1900 1922 provided an alternative decolonizing model of resistance for the Chinese Renaissance to that provided by the western imperial center The book also argues that Chinese May Fourth intellectuals translated Irish Revivalist plays by W B Yeats Lady Gregory Se n O Casey and Synge and that Chinese peasants performed these plays throughout China during the 1920s and 1930s as a form of anti imperial resistance Yet this literary exchange was not simply going one way since Yeats Lady Gregory Synge and O Casey were also influenced by Chinese developments in literature and politics Therefore this was a reciprocal encounter based on the circulation of Anti colonial ideals and mutual transformation

The Ordnance Survey and Modern Irish Literature C  il  n Parsons,2016-04-15 The Ordnance Survey and Modern Irish Literature offers a fresh new look at the origins of literary modernism in Ireland tracing a history of Irish writing through James Clarence Mangan J M Synge W B Yeats James Joyce and Samuel Beckett Beginning with the archives of the Ordnance Survey which mapped Ireland between 1824 and 1846 the book argues that one of the sources of Irish modernism lies in the attempt by the Survey to produce a comprehensive archive of a land emerging rapidly into modernity The Ordnance Survey instituted a practice of depicting the country as modern fragmented alienated and troubled both diagnosing and representing a landscape burdened with the paradoxes of colonial modernity Subsequent literature returns in varying ways both imitative and combative to the complex representational challenge that the Survey confronts and seeks to surmount From a colonial mapping project to an engine of nationalist imagining and finally a framework by which to evade the claims of the postcolonial nation the Ordnance Survey was a central imaginative source of what makes Irish modernist writing both formally innovative and politically challenging Drawing on literary theory studies of space the history of cartography postcolonial theory archive theory and the field Irish Studies The Ordnance Survey and Modern Irish Literature paints a picture of Irish writing deeply engaged in the representation of a multi layered landscape

Modern Realism in English-Canadian Fiction Colin Hill,2012-05-07 Much of the scholarship on twentieth century Canadian literature has argued that English Canadian fiction was plagued by backwardness and an inability to engage fully with the movement of modernism that was so prevalent in British and American fiction and poetry Modern Realism in English Canadian Fiction re evaluates Canadian literary culture to posit that it has been misunderstood because it is a distinct genre a regional form of the larger international modernist movement Examining literary magazines manifestos archival documents and major writers such as Frederick Philip Grove Morley Callaghan and Raymond Knister Colin Hill identifies a modern realism that crosses regions as well as urban and rural divides A bold reading of the modern realist aesthetic and an articulate challenge to several enduring and limiting myths about Canadian writing Modern Realism in English Canadian Fiction will stimulate important debate in literary circles everywhere

Scandinavian designers and writers Making connections between formal analysis historical context and theory the book continues lines of inquiry which have been pursued by Neil Levine and Anthony Vidler on representation and by Sarah Goldhagen and Alice Friedman on modernism s forbidden elements of the honorific and the visually pleasurable It highlights the significance of pavilionizing mid century designers such as Victor Lundy John Johansen Eero Saarinen and Edward Durrell Stone and shows how frequently essentialist and traditionalist types appeared in the roadside vernacular of drive in restaurants gas stations furniture and car showrooms branch banks and motels The book ties together the threads in mid century architectural theory that addressed aspects of type essential structure and primal humanistic aspects of environment making and discusses how these concerns outlived the mid century moment and in the designs and writings of Aldo Rossi and others they paved the way for Post Modernism
