Perfume The Story Of A Murderer:

PERFUME Patrick Suskind, 1986-09-12 The year is 1738 the place Paris A baby is born under a fish monger s bloody table in a marketplace and abandoned Orphaned passed over to the monks as a charity case already there is something in the aura of the tiny infant that is unsettling No one will look after him he is somehow too demanding and even more disturbing something is missing as his wet nurse tries to explain he doesn t smell the way a baby should smell indeed he has no scent at all Slowly as we watch Jean Baptiste Grenouille cling stubbornly to life we begin to realize that a monster is growing before our eyes With mounting unease yet hypnotized we see him explore his powers and their effect on the world around him For this dark and sinister boy who has no smell himself possesses an absolute sense of smell and with it he can read the world to discover the hidden truths that elude ordinary men He can smell the very composition of objects and their history and where they have been he has no need of the light and darkness is not dark to him because nothing can mask the odors of the universe As he leaves childhood behind and comes to understand his terrible uniqueness his obsession becomes the quest to identify and then to isolate the most perfect scent of all the scent of life itself At first he hones his powers learning the ancient arts of perfume making until the exquisite fragrances he creates are the rage of Paris and indeed Europe Then secure in his mastery of these means to an end he withdraws into a strange and agonized solitude waiting dreaming until the morning when he wakes ready to embark on his monstrous quest to find and extract from the most perfect living creatures the most beautiful young virgins in the land that ultimate perfume which alone can make him too fully human As his trail leads him at an ever quickening pace from his savage exile to the heart of the country and then back to Paris we are caught up in a rising storm of terror and mortal sensual conquest until the frenzy of his final triumph explodes in all its horrifying consequences Told with dazzling narrative brilliance and the haunting power of a grown up fairy tale Perfume is one of the most remarkable novels of the last fifty years connections between German directors and Hollywood and their implications for German American and transnational film The film histories of Germany and the United States have long been seen as intertwined but scholarship has focused on migr works of the 1930s and 1940s on links between Weimar film and American film noir and on the conflicted relationship between directors of the New German Cinema and Hollywood Recently German film studies has begun reexamining the interconnection of the two film cultures and focusing on the internationalism of German cinema but little research has been done on contemporary German directors involvement in American cinema a gap in scholarship that this book fills The study offers ways of understanding current German cinematic engagement with America and different directorial responses to the hegemonic pressures of Hollywood It delineates the historical trajectory of German American film relations in the 20th century then analyzes the careers and works of four German born directors who have significant ties with American cinema Wolfgang Petersen Roland Emmerich Percy Adlon and Tom Tykwer A series of close readings of their productions isolates the cinematic practices and strategies with which these filmmakers negotiate the different national cultural and cinematic paradigms they traverse The book analyzes constructions of national cultural identity probes the boundaries of national cinemas and expands our understanding of emerging hybrid film cultures It is a contribution to German film studies and to the emerging field of transnational film studies Christine Haase is Associate Professor of German at the University of Georgia

Carnal Aesthetics Marta Zarzycka, Bettina Papenburg, 2012-12-18 Art today is an increasingly multifaceted phenomenon encompassing transgressive works that intervene in war and ecological disasters in inequalities and revolutionary changes in technology Carnal Aesthetics is a fascinating new examination of this aspect of contemporary visual culture Employing recent theories of transgressive body imagery trauma affect and sensation it provides a fresh look at the meeting point between the politics of representation and the politics of perception through the prismatic lens of feminist theory Acclaimed scholars analyse a wide range of seminal case studies coming from different media digital photography painting video film and multimedia art They explore here a number of transgressive movements that significantly reconfigure the relationship between the body and the image Unlike other books on the complex relationship between politics and aesthetics Carnal Aesthetics seeks to provide a novel approach to art and culture by challenging the primacy of vision and by injecting an intersectional perspective into the fields of visual studies film and media studies as well as trauma studies It is a significant contribution across these dynamic fields of exploration for scholars who deal with the socio political nature of contemporary visual culture in their work
