Sydney's One Special Evangelist Baden P. Stace, 2022-08-04 This landmark work is the first academic study of a figure who played a defining role in the Australian evangelical movement of the late twentieth century the inimitable preacher evangelist and churchman John C Chapman The study situates Chapman s career within the secularizing Western cultures of the post 1960s a period bringing momentous changes to the social and religious fabric of Western society At the same time global Evangelicalism was reviving bringing vitality to large swathes in the Global South and a re balancing in Western societies as conservative religious movements experienced growth and even renewal amidst wider secularizing trends Against this backdrop the study explores the way in which across a wide array of domestic and international fora Chapman contended for the soteriological priority of the gospel in Christian life mission and thought Accomplished via an absorbing blend of personal wit impassioned oratory innovative missiological strategy and striking theological perception the result was a stimulating history of public advocacy that sought a revival of confidence in Evangelicalism s message and a constantly reforming vision of Evangelicalism s method Such a legacy marks Chapman as a central figure within the generation of postwar leaders whose work has given Australian Evangelicalism its contemporary shape and dynamism Military

Statecraft and the Rise of Shaping in World Politics Kyle J. Wolfley, 2021-06-29 Winner of the Andrew F Krepinevich Writing Award A 2022 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title Selected for the Irregular Warfare Initiative s Inaugural Reading List 2022 In today s complex international environment how do the United States China and Russia manage the return of great power competition as well as the persistent threat of violent non state actors This book explores shaping the use of military power to construct a more favorable environment by influencing the characteristics of other militaries altering the relationships between them or managing the behavior of allies As opposed to traditional strategies of warfighting or coercion shaping relies less on threats demonstrations and uses of violence and more on attraction persuasion and legitimacy Because shaping relies more on soft power than on hard power this approach contradicts the conventional wisdom of the purpose militaries serve Kyle J Wolfley explores the emergence of shaping in classical strategy and its increased frequency following the end of the Cold War when threats and allies became more ambiguous He illustrates the four logics of shaping attraction socialization delegation and assurance through five case studies of recent major military exercise programs led by the United States China India the United Kingdom and Russia Moreover the author reveals through sentiment analysis and statistics of over one thousand multinational exercises from 1980 to 2016 how major powers reacted to a complex international environment by expanding the number and scope of shaping exercises Illuminating an understudied but surprisingly common tool of military statecraft this book offers a fresh understanding of military power in today s competitive international system The Annual Library Index ,1905 Including periodicals American and English essays book chapters etc bibliographies necrology index to dates of principal events
