

The Scholarship Personal Essay

The Personal Essay one of the most important parts of your scholarship application. This is your chance to let the Scholarship Committee or Donor know your educational and career goals, why you have selected your stated major and career goal, your life experiences which have influenced this decision, and your anticipated role in society after your career goal has been achieved. It is as if you had ten minutes to sit face-to-face with the Committee or Donor and let them know why you feel you should be a recipient of a scholarship from Riverside Community College District. However, to put all this on paper can be difficult and even intimidating.

1. First, let's begin with the basic format of your essay:

- Your essay must be in electronic format (in other words, typed on your computer in Microsoft word or PDF and less than 5MB).
- Save your essay to your desktop or a memory device (such as a memory stick, flash drive, thumb drive, etc.). You will be asked to upload it as part of your online scholarship application.
- Be sure to include your name and student ID# in the heading.
- It is best if your essay is no more than 2 pages.
- Make your essay easy to read. Remember, the reviewing committees will be reading many essays, and although you want your essay to stand out you do not want it to be hard on the eyes while reading. It is better to use your words to show your uniqueness, rather than complicated lettering. Use an easy to read font and size.
- If possible, double space your essay.

2. Now, regarding the content: You may be asking, "Where do I begin?" There are endless ideas and suggestions as to how to write a personal essay for scholarships. However the following suggestions may help to organize your thoughts and personal information into a concise and easy to read essay.

Create an Outline: Just getting started is often the hardest part. To begin, make an outline of the things you would like to say in your essay such as:

- Your educational and career goals,
- Why you have selected your stated major and career goal,
- Your life experiences which have influenced this decision,
- Your anticipated role in society after your career goal has been achieved,
- Why you need the scholarship or any unusual circumstances which may affect your current financial situation,
- Anything else you feel the Scholarship Committee or Donor needs to know about you in order to present yourself as the best candidate for the scholarship.

Write your essay: Next, you need to organize the outline into an essay. The following is an easy guide to help you arrange your ideas and thoughts into a well thought out essay.

1. First Paragraph: The first paragraph is considered your introduction.

- a. The introduction is often the most difficult to write. It may be a good idea to start on the body of the essay and come back to write the introduction later.

Pedersen, 2018-11-08 This collection invites environmental law scholars to reflect on what it means to be an environmental law scholar and to consider how and why environmental law scholars engage in environmental law scholarship Leading environmental law scholars from different backgrounds and jurisdictions offer their personal reflections on the nature form quality and challenges of environmental law scholarship The collection offers the first honest introspection on what environmental law scholarship is and is not It considers the unique contributions of environmental law scholarship to legal scholarship more generally reflecting on what sets environmental law scholarship apart from other disciplines of legal scholarship and the challenges arising from these differences Latinx Experiences Maria J. Villaseñor, Hortencia

Jimenez, 2023-07-12 This reader introduces students to the variety and complexity of Latinxs experiences in the U S and prepares them for further study in this interdisciplinary field The opening essay written by the editors offers a broad overview of the approximately 59 million people in the U S who identify as Hispanic The rest of the book will consist of contributed essays from Latina o Chicana o scholars on a range of subjects including immigration citizenship and deportation racial identities political participation and power educational and economic achievement family religion media and popular culture Although the essays are written for lower division undergraduates they reflect many of the leading theoretical and methodological approaches in the field The essays are unified by an intersectional approach demonstrating how experiences and life chances of Latinxs are also shaped by gender social class sexuality age and citizenship status Unpacking the Personal Library Jason Camlot, J.A. Weingarten, 2022-07-01 Unpacking the Personal Library The Public and Private Life of Books is an edited collection of essays that ponders the cultural meaning and significance of private book collections in relation to public libraries Contributors explore libraries at particular moments in their history across a wide range of cases and includes Alberto Manguel's account of the Library of Alexandria as well as chapters on library collecting in the middle ages the libraries of prime ministers and foreign embassies protest libraries and the slow transformation of university libraries and the stories of the personal libraries of Virginia Woolf Robert Duncan Sheila Watson Al Purdy and others The book shows how the history of the library is really a history of collection consolidation migration dispersal and integration where each story negotiates private and public spaces Unpacking the Personal Library builds on and interrogates theories and approaches from library and archive studies the history of the book reading authorship and publishing Collectively the chapters articulate a critical poetics of the personal library within its extended social aesthetic and cultural contexts On

Freedom and the Will to Adorn Cheryl A. Wall, 2018-10-26 Although they have written in various genres African American writers as notable and diverse as W E B Du Bois James Baldwin and Alice Walker have done their most influential work in the essay form The Souls of Black Folk The Fire Next Time and In Search of Our Mothers Gardens are landmarks in African American literary history Many other writers such as Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston James Weldon Johnson and Richard Wright are acclaimed essayists but achieved greater fame for their work in other genres their essay work is often overlooked or studied only in the contexts of their better known works Here Cheryl A Wall offers the first sustained study of the African American essay as a distinct literary genre Beginning with the sermons orations and writing of nineteenth century men and women like Frederick Douglass who laid the foundation for the African American essay Wall examines the genre's evolution through the Harlem Renaissance She then turns her attention to four writers she regards as among the most influential essayists of the twentieth century Baldwin Ellison June Jordan and Alice Walker She closes the book with a discussion of the status of the essay in the twenty first century as it shifts its medium from print to digital in the hands of writers like Ta Nehisi Coates and Brittney Cooper Wall's beautifully written and insightful book is nothing less than a redefinition of how we understand the genres of African American literature The New Irish Studies Paige Reynolds, 2020-09-24 The New Irish

Studies demonstrates how diverse critical approaches enable a richer understanding of contemporary Irish writing and culture The early decades of the twenty first century in Ireland and Northern Ireland have seen an astonishing rate of change one that reflects the common understanding of the contemporary as a moment of acceleration and flux This collection tracks how Irish writers have represented the peace and reconciliation process in Northern Ireland the consequences of the Celtic Tiger economic boom in the Republic the waning influence of Catholicism the increased authority of diverse voices and an altered relationship with Europe The essays acknowledge the distinctiveness of contemporary Irish literature reflecting a sense that the local can shed light on the global even as they reach beyond the limited tropes that have long identified Irish literature The collection suggests routes forward for Irish Studies and unsettles presumptions about what constitutes an Irish classic

Place-Based Writing in Action Rob Montgomery, Amanda Montgomery, 2024-02-06 This text presents a variety of ways for students to meet traditional instructional goals in writing while also learning how writing can help them become stewards of the natural world and advocates for their own communities Built on a foundation of emerging research and theory and grounded in the lived reality of teachers this book explores the material and virtual worlds as places that can be equally productive as sources for authentic writing Readers will find place based writing activities lesson ideas and samples of student work in every chapter With practical and classroom tested ideas Place Based Writing in Action is a useful text for preservice and in service English teachers as well as any educator who wants to move the act of writing beyond the four walls of the classroom

Popularizing Scholarly Research Patricia Leavy, 2021-08-17 Popularizing Scholarly Research The Academic Landscape Representation and Professional Identity in the 21st Century provides an introduction to the world of research in the 21st century This book discusses how research may be represented and issues related to professional identity in this shifting arena Patricia Leavy's book explains how research has turned from a disciplinary to transdisciplinary the new structures our research may take as well as what our professional lives may look like Contributors discuss transdisciplinary research public intellectuals audience and voice creative nonfiction writing collaboratively visual images writing for broad audiences academic blogs publicity funding and public policy

Slow Scholarship Catherine E. Karkov, 2019 A powerful claim for the virtues of a more thoughtful and collegiate approach to the academy today This book offers a response to the culture of metrics mass digitisation and accountability as opposed to responsibility or citizenship that has developed in higher education world wide as exemplified by the UK's Research Excellence Framework exercise REF and the increasing bureaucracy that limits the time available for teaching research and even conversation and collaboration Ironically these are problems that will be solved only by academics finding the time to talk and to work together The essays collected here both critique the culture of speed in the neoliberal university and provide examples of what can be achieved by slowing down by reclaiming research and research priorities and by working collaboratively across the disciplines to improve conditions They are informed both by recent research in medieval studies and by the problematic culture of twenty first century higher education The contributions offer very personal approaches to the academic culture of the present moment Some tackle issues of academic freedom head on others more obliquely but they all have been written as declarations of the academic freedom that comes with slow thinking slow reading slow writing and slow looking and the demonstrations of its benefits
