Pile Ou Face:

A pile ou face Jeffrey Archer, 2020-07-09 , The Poems and Aphorisms of Maurice Chapelan Mary Munro-Hill, 2020-11-24 This book prefaced by the French novelist and essayist Jeanne Cressanges focuses on Maurice Chapelan's poetry and aphorisms which are an integral part of his oeuvre. His poems encompass the whole essence of the man, his very heart and soul, whereas the aphorisms express his philosophy. Chapelan is a master of the prose poem, the poem in prose, a creator of concise poetic pieces full of rich imagery and musicality. His aphorisms too are often poetic and most of his work in every genre contains verse and philosophy. Above all, Chapelan was a moralist and a fine practitioner of humour noir, which he defines as la conjuration de l'horreur par le rire. He called himself un humoriste. Although Maurice Chapelan died in 1992, most of his books are still in print and he is remembered with affection, admiration and gratitude by those who used to relish his witty Divertissements grammaticaux in Le Figaro littéraire. He had been resident chroniqueur du langage at Le Figaro since 1961, his earlier articles appearing under the more sober heading Usage et grammaire. He continued to write his chroniques until shortly before his death.

Maurice Aristide Chapelan, Man of Three Parts Mary Munro-Hill, 2019-11-07 This work presents Maurice Chapelan in three distinct ways: firstly as a poet, biographer, literary critic and writer of aphorisms; secondly as a famous newspaper grammarian; and thirdly as the author of romans galants inspired by his youthful study of his paternal grandfather's rich library of eighteenth-century literature. Although Chapelan died in 1992, many of his books are still in print and he is remembered with affection, admiration and gratitude, especially by those who used to relish his witty Divertissements grammaticaux, formerly Usage et grammaire, every week in Le Figaro littéraire, where he had become resident chroniqueur du langage in 1961. Maurice Aristide Chapelan may well have been three distinct writers, signing himself in fun as MAC, le Diable comme Dieu en trois personnes, but these three persons had a well-defined unifying thread running through their literary output: a beauty, a simplicity and an elegance of style revealing a love of the French language and more than a hint of libertinage.

On the Dot Alexander Humez, Nicholas Humez, 2008-10-02 Despite the humble origins of its name, Anglo-Saxon for the speck at the head of a boil, the dot has been one of the most versatile players in the history of written communication to the point that it has become virtually indispensable. Now in On the Dot, Alexander and Nicholas Humez offer a wide-ranging, entertaining account of this much overlooked and minuscule linguistic sign. The Humez brothers shed light on the dot in all its various forms. As a mark of punctuation, they show it plays many roles: as sentence stopper, a constituent of the colon, a clause stopper, and the ellipsis dot-dot-dot. In musical notation, it denotes and a half. In computerese, it has several different functions, as in dot-com, the marker between a file name and its extension, and in some slightly more arcane uses in programming languages. The dot also plays a number of roles in mathematics including the notation of world currency such as dollars dot cents in Morse code dots and dashes and in the raised dots of Braille And as the authors connect all these dots they take readers on an engaging tour of the highways and byways of language ranging from the history of the question mark and its lesser known offshoots the point d ironie and the interrobang to acronyms and backronyms power point bullets and asterisks emoticons and the at sign Playful wide ranging and delightfully informative On the Dot reveals how thoroughly the dot is embedded in our everyday world of words and ideas acquiring a power inversely proportional to its diminutive size Le calcul des probabilités et ses applications Emmanuel Carvallo,1912 National Register of Belgian Draft Horses Belgian Draft Horse Corporation of America,1917 The Belgian draft horse v 1 p xxi xxxiii The Fortnightly Review ,1865 National Register of Belgian Draft Horses (American Stud Book) Belgian Draft Horse Corporation of America,1917 Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège,2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumi_re screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges MZli_s Alice Guy BlachZ and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi_re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe R ge identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director s entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual s education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age_Jean Renoir and RenZ Clair_to French New Wave artists such as Fran_ois Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard Patrick Modiano Akane Kawakami,2015 The most up to date and comprehensive critical study of Nobel Prize winning author Patrick Modiano Film Manifestos and Global Cinema Cultures Scott MacKenzie,2021-01-21 Film Manifestos and Global Cinema Cultures is the first book to collect manifestoes from the global history of cinema providing the first historical and theoretical account of the role played by film manifestos in filmmaking and film culture Focusing equally on political and aesthetic manifestoes Scott MacKenzie uncovers a neglected yet nevertheless central history of the cinema exploring a series of documents that postulate ways in which to re imagine the cinema and in the process re imagine the world This volume collects the major European waves and figures Eisenstein Truffaut Bergman Free Cinema Oberhausen Dogme 95 Latin American Third Cinemas Birri Sanjin s Espinosa Solanas radical art and the avant garde Bu uel Brakhage Deren Mekas Ono Sanborn and world cinemas Iimura Makhmalbaf Sembene Sen It also contains previously untranslated manifestos co written by figures including Bolla n Debord Hermosillo Isou Kieslowski Painlev Straub and many others Thematic sections address
