Gallipoli Sniper John Hamilton, 2015-04-30 This is a well researched detailed and compelling story Defender Magazine Billy Sing was a small dark man and a deadly killer When as a member of the Australian Imperial Force 5th Light Horse he was thrust onto the narrow strip of land held by the Australians on Gallipoli he witnessed the terrible effects of the Turkish snipers and decided to fight fire with fire Using a simple Lee Enfield 303 rifle Sing began to pick off unwary Turks who exposed themselves Assisted by a spotter who would single out targets for him Sing acquired an unrivalled reputation as he killed increasing numbers of enemy soldiers He became known as the Anzac Angel of Death and the Assassin of Gallipoli and was considered to be the most successful sniper and most feared man in Gallipoli The Turks aware of his reputation decided to target the Sing with their own marksman In a deadly duel Sing fired first and killed Abdul the Terrible This a vivid account of the merciless nature of the fighting in the Gallipoli Campaign from an award winning journalist and best selling author

City of Orange David Yoon, 2023-05-23 A man wakes up in an unknown landscape injured and alone He used to live in a place called California but how did he wind up here with a head wound and a bottle of pills in his pocket He navigates his surroundings one rough shape at a time Here lies a pipe there a reed that could be carved into a weapon beyond a city he once lived in He could swear his daughter's name began with a J but what was it exactly Then he encounters an old man a crow and a boy and realizes that nothing is what he thought it was neither the present nor the past He can t even recall the features of his own face and wonders who am I Harrowing and haunting but also humorous in the face of the unfathomable David Yoon s City of Orange is a novel about reassembling the things that make us who we are and finding the way home again The ISCC-NBS Method of Designating Colors and a Dictionary of Color Names Kenneth L. Selected Works of Gertrude Franklin Horn Atherton Gertrude Franklin Horn Atherton, 2020-09-28 Countess Gisela Niebuhr sat in the long dusk of Munich staring over at the beautiful park that in happier days had been famous in the world as the Englischer Garten and deliberately recalled on what might be the last night of her life the successive causes that had led to her profound dissatisfaction with her country as a woman She was so thoroughly disgusted with it as a German that personal grievances were far from necessary to fortify her for the momentous role she was to play with the dawn but in this rare hour of leisure it amused her naturally introspective mind to rehearse certain episodes whose sum had made her what she was When she was fourteen and her sisters Lili and Elsa sixteen and eighteen they had met in the attic of their home in Berlin one afternoon when their father was automatically at his club and their mother taking her prescribed hour of rest and solemnly pledged one another never to marry The causes of this vital conclave were both cumulative and immediate Their father the Herr Graf a fine looking junker of sixty odd with a roving eye and a martial air despite a corpulence which annoyed him excessively had transferred his lost authority over his regiment to his household The boys were in their own regiments and rid of parental discipline but the countess and the girls received the full benefit of his military and Prussian relish for despotism In his essence a kind man and fond of his women he balked their every individual wish and allowed them practically no liberty They never left the house unattended like the American girls and those fortunate beings of the student class Lili had a charming voice and was consumed with ambition to be an operatic star She had summoned her courage upon one memorable occasion and broached the subject to her father All the terrified family had expected his instant dissolution from apoplexy and in spite of his petty tyrannies they loved him The best instructor in Berlin continued to give her lessons as nothing gave the Graf more pleasure of an evening than her warblings The household quite apart from the Frau Gräfin's admirable management ran with military precision and no one dared to be the fraction of a minute late for meals or social engagements They attended the theater the opera court functions dinners balls on stated nights and unless the Kaiser took a whim and altered a date there was no deviation from this routine year in and out They walked at the same hour drove in the Tiergarten with the rest of fashionable Berlin started for their castle in the Saxon Alps not only upon the same day but on the same train every summer and the electric lights went out at precisely the same moment every night the count's faithful steward manipulated a central stop They were encouraged to read and study but not oh by no means to have individual opinions The men of Germany were there to do the thinking and they did it Perhaps the rebellion of the Niebuhr girls would never have crystallized for after all their everyday experience was much like that of other girls of their class merely intensified by their father's persistence of executive ardors had it not been for two subtle influences quite unsuspected by the haughty Kammerherr they had an American friend Kate Terriss who was finishing her voice in Berlin and their married sister Mariette had recently spent a fortnight in the paternal nest The count despised the entire American race as all good Prussians did but he was as wax to feminine blandishments outside of his family and Miss Terriss was pretty diplomatic alluring and far cleverer than he would have admitted any woman could be She wound the old martinet round her finger subdued her rampant Americanism in his society and amused herself sowing the seeds of rebellion in the minds of those poor Niebuhr girls As the countess also liked her she had been in and out of the house for nearly a year The young Prussians had alternately gasped and wept at the amazing stories of the liberty the petting the procession of good times enjoyed by American girls of their own class to say nothing of the invariable prerogative of these fortunate girls to choose their own husbands who according to the unprincipled Miss Terriss invariably spoiled their wives and permitted them to go and come to spend their large personal allowances as they listed Gisela closed her beloved volume of Grimm's fairy tales and never opened it again
