

St. Paul Rodeo

Royal Court Committee

The 2018 St. Paul Rodeo Court tryouts will be held Sunday, October 8, 2017 at the Marshall County Fairgrounds, 2070 NE Lafayette Ave, McMinnville, Oregon 97128.

The tryouts consist of the following agenda:

- a. At 9:00 am there will be a group orientation with all contestants and their parents. After introductions, contestants will draw numbers for the order of interviews.
- b. Personal interviews: You will be asked about rodeo and current events.
- c. A three to four minute speech about yourself, your horse, or something you think would impress the Judges. This speech will be done on horseback, using a wireless microphone.
- d. Horsemanship: You will ride the enclosed pattern once, and then an impromptu trail pattern on your own horse.

Horsemanship competition begins at 1:00 pm; family and friends are welcome to attend.

Rodeo Queen 101 Anne T. Reason, 2017-08-26 At age four Anne T Reason fell in love with everything about the rodeo especially saddle bronc riding Years later she married a saddle bronc rider who at the age of fifty two ignored his bad knees and arthritis and rode his first bull Throughout all her years of attending and working rodeos Reason has developed a great passion for the sport the people their responsibilities and most of all their deep love and appreciation for their livestock In a comprehensive reference manual Reason consults experts such as past queens judges directors and an equine vet to share valuable behind the scenes insight for future rodeo queens and their families Through timeless and expert guidance future competitors will learn helpful interview preparation tips general information about the horsemanship competition and arena etiquette how to find and model proper rodeo attire and how to properly care for equines Also included is a large glossary of rodeo and western terms as well as illustrations Rodeo Queen 101 combines expertise with personal stories to provide step by step direction for future rodeo queens and their families interested in competing locally and nationally

Calgary's Stampede Queens Jennifer Hamblin, 2014 Alongside images of racing chuckwagons cowboys on bucking broncos and Aboriginal people in full regalia one of the most recognizable and enduring symbols of the Calgary Stampede is a trio of pretty cowgirls wearing white hat crowns Not surprisingly modern day Stampede Queens and Princesses make more than 450 public appearances per year promoting the show and the city of Calgary both at home and abroad But the fair was nearly six decades old before it appointed a royal representative to promote its interests In 1946 Patsy Rodgers became the Stampede's first rodeo queen The following year a local service club raised funds by sponsoring a contest for Queen of the Stampede Although it bore little resemblance to its modern counterpart this early competition based on ticket sales was widely popular and over the next few decades raised the equivalent of one million dollars for local charities and service projects From the beginning the Stampede recognized the promotional potential of the royal figureheads and worked to ensure that winners were credible representatives of what quickly became a year round public relations job In 1966 the Stampede officially took over and modernized the contest but it would take many decades of trial and error evolution to perfect the process of selecting and training its royalty Against a backdrop of changing times and drawing on contemporary sources and personal interviews the author traces the origin and development of the Calgary Stampede Queen contest and profiles its lucky young winners over seven exciting decades Complete with a large selection of archival photos Calgary's Stampede Queens tells the story from this fascinating corner of The Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth Enjoy the Journey W. Lenore Mobley, 2011-06-10 In Enjoy the Journey Join in a celebration of warming moments in the memoirs of these women with their horses living along the Snake River Plain Learn what they did to refresh their souls Whether driving a big team moving a herd of cattle into a holding pen seeing a newborn colt get up for the first time and suck from its mother riding in a race jumping over four foot tall poles do specialty riding with disabled people or watch a young horse you raised perform well as these women in this book fulfilled either their dream or helped someone else achieve theirs You will learn that several of these women conquered many obstacles some of illness or injury and yet upon recover acquired a good horse and continued doing something they loved so dearly Also in this book are places good trails listed where you too could go to ride or hike It is stated where they are and what to expect as you begin your journey They are written with clarity that you also will be able to see these beautiful places in your mind Enjoy your journey as you read and learn Enjoy the Journey is encouraging and compassionate It reminded me that time spent on a good horse would be well worth the investment K Hall writer of non fiction novels American Cattle Producer ,1955 Lumber World Review ,1925 Los Angeles Magazine
