as well as those interested in the cultural history of the Middle East Rooftops of Tehran, 2009 An unforgettable debut novel of young love and growing up in an Iran headed toward revolution In a middle class neighborhood of Iran s sprawling capital city 17 year old Pasha Shahed spends one perfect stolen summer with his beautiful neighbor Zari until he unwittingly guides the Shah s secret police to their target Zari s intended The violent consequences awaken Pasha and his friends to the reality of life under the rule of a powerful despot and lead Zari to make a shocking choice from which Pasha may never recover Tremors Anita Amirrezvani, Persis Karim, 2013-02-01 This groundbreaking anthology brings together twenty seven authors from a wide range of experiences that offer new perspectives on the Iranian American story The authors in Tremors represent the maturing voice of Iranian American fiction from the vantage point of those who were born and raised in Iran as well as those writers who reflect a more distant but still important connection to their Iranian heritage Altogether these narratives capture the diversity of the Iranian diaspora and complicate the often narrow view of Iranian culture represented in the media The stories and novel excerpts explore the deeply human experiences of one of the newest immigrant groups to the United States in its attempts to adjust and assimilate in the face of major historical upheavals such as the 1979 Iranian revolution the hostage crisis and the attacks of September 11 2001 The stories set in Iran testify to the resilience dignity and humor of a people rich in history and culture City of Veils Zoë Ferraris, 2025-05-01 Finding Nouf s Katya Hijazi and Nayir Sharqi return for another thrilling fast paced mystery that provides a rare and intimate look into women s lives in the Middle East Women in Saudi Arabia are expected to lead quiet lives circumscribed by Islamic law and tradition But Katya one of the few women in the medical examiner s office is determined to make her work mean something When the body of a brutally beaten woman is found on the beach in Jeddah the city s detectives are ready to dismiss the case as another unsolvable murder chillingly common in a city where the veils of conservative Islam keep women as anonymous in life as this victim is in death If this is another housemaid killed by her employer finding the culprit will be all but impossible Only Katya is convinced that the victim can be identified and her killer found She calls upon her friend Nayir for help and soon discovers that the dead girl was a young filmmaker named Leila whose controversial documentaries earned her many enemies With only the woman s clandestine footage as a guide Katya and Nayir must confront the dark side of Jeddah that Leila struggled to expose an underworld of prostitution violence exploitation and jealously guarded secrets Along the way they form an unlikely alliance with an American woman whose husband has disappeared Their growing search takes them from the city s car clogged streets to the deadly vastness of the desert beyond Iranian Diaspora Literature of Women Leila Samadi Rendy, 2020-08-10 No detailed description available for Iranian Diaspora Literature of Women Tablet & Pen Reza Aslan, 2025-04-25 A Words Without Borders Anthology Remarkable a triumph connects us at the level of our humanity no matter where we may be from Los Angeles Times The countries that stretch along the broad horizons of the Middle East from Morocco to Iran from Turkey to Pakistan boast different cultures different languages and different religions

Yet the literary landscape of this dynamic part of the world has been bound together not by borders and nationalities but by a common experience of Western imperialism. Keenly aware of the collected scars left by a legacy of colonial rule, the acclaimed writer Reza Aslan, with a team of four regional editors and seventy-seven translators, cogently demonstrates with Tablet and Pen how literature can in fact be used to form identity and serve as an extraordinary chronicle of the disrupted histories of the region. Acting with Words Without Borders, which fosters international exchange through translation and publication of the world's finest literature, Aslan has purposefully situated this volume in the twentieth century, beyond the familiar confines of the Ottoman past, believing that the writers who have emerged in the last hundred years have not received their full due. This monumental collection, therefore, of nearly two hundred pieces, including short stories, novels, memoirs, essays, and works of drama, many of them presented in English for the first time, features translated works from Arabic, Persian, Urdu, and Turkish. Organized chronologically, the volume spans a century of literature from the famed Arab poet Khalil Gibran to the Nobel laureates Naguib Mahfouz and Orhan Pamuk, from the great Syrian-Lebanese poet Adonis to the grand dame of Urdu fiction, Ismat Chughtai, connected by the extraordinarily rich tradition of resplendent cultures that have been all too often ignored by the Western canon. By shifting America's perception of the Middle Eastern world away from religion and politics, Tablet and Pen evokes the splendors of a region through the voices of its writers and poets whose literature tells an urgent and liberating story. With a wealth of contextual information that places the writing within the historical, political, and cultural breadth of the region, Tablet and Pen is transcendent: a book to be devoured as a single, sustained narrative from the first page to the last. Creating a vital bridge between two estranged cultures, this is that rare anthology, cohesive, affecting, and informing.

Publishers Weekly Displaced Lives Frank Stewart, 2020-01-31

Human displacement is an old phenomenon; however, the dislocation of people in the twenty-first century has been unprecedented. At the end of 2019, over 260 million people were living outside their countries of birth. Some are forced to relocate by violence, wars, hunger, persecution, and other causes, and some are voluntary migrants. A single term cannot define who they are or why they are on the move. For those uprooted by force, the psychological and spiritual loss of homeland can be devastating. The millions who are mentally uprooted because of war-induced PTSD, addiction, and aging can suffer similar displacement and trauma. Through outstanding fiction, poetry, memoir, and drama, the authors in Displaced Lives vividly depict the responses and emotions of ordinary people to displacement, a devastating and widespread crisis of our time. Authors are from Bangladesh, Canada, Cuba, China, Germany, India, Ireland, Iran, Israel, Macedonia, Mexico, the Netherlands, Pakistan, the Philippines, Romania, Russia, South Africa, Spain, and the U.S. Featured is a portfolio of photographs by Serena Chopra taken in the Tibetan refugee colony of Majnu Ka Tilla, Delhi.
