Important Warranty Information Regarding Television Format Viewing

*% See the warranty card for more information on warranty terms.

Wide screen format LED Displays (16:9, the aspect ratio of the screen width to height) are primarily designed to view wide screen format full-motion video. The images displayed on them should primarily be in the wide screen 16:9 ratio format, or expanded to fill the screen if your model offers this feature and the images are constantly moving. Displaying stationary graphics and images on screen, such as the dark sidebars on non-expanded standard format television video and programming, should be limited to no more than 5% of the total television viewing per week. Additionally, viewing other stationary images and text such as stock market reports, video game displays, station logos, web sites or computer graphics and patterns, should be limited as described above for all televisions. Displaying stationary images that exceed the above guidelines can cause uneven aging of LED Displays that leave subtle, but permanent burned-in ghost images in the LED picture. To avoid this, vary the programming and images, and primarily display full screen moving images, not stationary patterns or dark bars. On LED models that offer picture sizing features, use these controls to view different formats as a full screen picture. Be careful in the selection and duration of television formats you use for viewing. Uneven LED aging as a result of format selection and use, as well as burned-in images, are not covered by your Samsung limited warranty.

Still image warning

Avoid displaying still images (such as jpeg picture files) or still image elements (such as TV channel logos, TV shows or movies in panoramas or 4:3 format, stock or news scroll bars, etc.) on the screen. The constant display of still pictures can cause ghosting or image burn-in (image retention) on the LED screen, which will affect image quality. To reduce the risk of this effect, please follow the recommendations below:

- Avoid displaying the same TV channel for long periods.
- Always try to display any image in full screen mode. Use the TV's Picture Options menu to select the optimal screen size.
- Reduce brightness and contrast values to the minimum required to achieve the desired picture quality. Values that exceed the minimum may speed up the burn-in process.
- Frequently use all TV features designed to reduce image retention and screen burn-in. Refer to proper user manual section for details.
