

WELCOME TO THE NEW SCHOOL YEAR & THE CLASSROOM OF

Dear Parents & Guardians,

I would like to introduce myself as your Room Parent for the year. I'm here to help our kids have the best year ever! I'll be working with the teacher in leading the planning efforts for parties, field trips, and other class and school-sponsored events. I sincerely welcome your help! :)

Please check periodically for invitations from SignUp.com, which I will use to ask for parent volunteer help and to collect donations for teacher gifts. (It's super easy to use, free, and doesn't require that you set up an account to participate – AND sends you automated reminders for all your commitments.)

I'm looking forward to getting to know you and your child better. Here's to a fun-filled and extra special year ahead!

SINCERELY,

Teaching Racial Literacy Mara Lee Grayson, 2018-03-12 Racial literacy a collection of discursive and decoding skills that allow individuals to interrogate race and racism as well as representation and personal identity is vital in a contemporary society that professes meritocracy and post racialism yet where racism and racialism continue to give rise to fear violence and inequity Because racial literacy requires individuals to develop a cache of discursive tools with which to critically read and respond to particular situations and broader societal practices as well as to investigate the rhetorical practices and power of racial ideology there is no venue better fitted to the development of racial literacy than the college composition classroom From the planning stages through the end of the semester this book provides practical strategies for designing and implementing racial literacy curricula in the composition classroom and across the curriculum Drawing upon an award winning three year ethnographic teacher research project the author offers curricular suggestions and teacher resources instructors can use to increase student engagement improve student writing and help students harness the tools of racial literacy including awareness of structural inequity and discursive modes with which to respond to social injustice The Beginning Teacher Sharon A. Kortman, Connie J. Honaker, 2004 Collaborating for English Learners Andrea Honigsfeld, Maria G. Dove, 2019-01-18 Looking for a silver bullet to accelerate EL achievement There is none But this we promise when EL specialists and general ed teachers pool their expertise your ELs language development and content mastery will improve exponentially Just ask the tens of thousands of Collaboration and Co Teaching users and now a new generation of educators thanks to this all new second edition Collaborating for English Learners Why this new edition Because more than a decade of implementation has generated for Andrea Honigsfeld and Maria Dove new insight into what exemplary teacher collaboration looks like which essential frameworks must be established and how integrated approaches to ELD services benefit all stakeholders Essentially a roadmap to the many different ways we can all work together this second edition of Collaborating for English Learners features All new examples case studies illustrative video and policy updates In depth coverage of the full range of strategies and configurations for determining the best model to adopt Templates planning guides and other practical tools to put collaboration into practice Guidelines self assessments and questionnaires for evaluating the strategies effectiveness By this time the big benefits of teacher collaboration are well documented Where teachers and schools struggle still is determining the best way to do so especially when working with our ELs That s where Andrea Honigsfeld Maria Dove and their second edition of Collaborating for English Learners will prove absolutely indispensable After all there are no two better authorities FROM COFFEE RUN TO CAIRO: Lee M. Yoder, 2012-01-05 The pages of this book bring to life the dynamics of learning experiences interaction leading and envisioning the applications of essential principles and concepts to enhance teaching educational administration and leadership in achieving a desired mission The cultures of the United States and the Middle East provide the contexts to convey the happenings of a lifetime The diversity of human interactions has enriched experiences which shaped responses and forward movement to realize the potential of individuals engaged in these opportunities History will reflect the essential results achieved which frees others to expand the scope of these endeavors To launch a new American school in Cairo Egypt from scratch was the capstone of my educational and leadership career To do so I took each step while drawing upon everything I had ever experienced
