

A woman with glasses and a green headband is shown in a state of spiritual fervor, with her mouth open as if speaking in tongues and her hands raised high in the air. She is wearing a dark purple t-shirt. In the background, other people are visible, some with their hands raised, suggesting a church service or a similar religious gathering. The lighting is dim, with a blueish tint, creating a solemn and focused atmosphere.

News Report On Speaking In Tongues:

Who is Present in Absence? Pamela F. Engelbert, 2019-01-16 What transpires when Classical Pentecostals pray for God to intervene within their suffering but God does not Traditionally Classical Pentecostals center on encountering God as demonstrated through the relating of testimonies of their experiences with God In seeking to contribute to a theology of suffering for Pentecostals Pam Engelbert lifts up the stories of eight Classical Pentecostals to discover how they experienced God and others amidst their extended suffering even when God did not intervene as they had prayed By valuing each story this qualitative practical theology work embraces a Pentecostal hermeneutic of experience combined with Scripture namely the Gospel of John As a Pentecostal practical theological project it offers a praxis theology of action of suffering and healing during times when we experience the apparent absence of God It invites the reader to enter into the space of the other s suffering by way of empathy and thereby participate in God s act of ministry to humanity through God s expression of empathy in the very person of Jesus The American Journal of Theology University of Chicago. Transcendental Medication Christopher D. Lynn,2022-04-28 Transcendental Medication considers why human brains evolved to have consciousness yet we spend much of our time trying to reduce our awareness It outlines how limiting consciousness rather than expanding it is more functional and satisfying for most people most of the time The suggestion is that our brains evolved mechanisms to deal with the stress of awareness in concert with awareness itself otherwise it is too costly to handle Defining dissociation as partitioning of awareness Lynn touches on disparate cultural and psychological practices such as religion drug use 12 step programs and dancing The chapters draw on biological and cultural studies of Pentecostal speaking in tongues and stress the results of our 800 000 years watching hearth and campfires and unconscious uses of self deception as mating strategy Written in a highly engaging style Transcendental Medication will appeal to students and scholars interested in mind altered states of consciousness and evolution It is particularly suitable for those approaching the issue from cultural biological psychological and cognitive anthropology as well as evolutionary psychology cognitive neuroscience and religious studies The Full Gospel Assembly (FGA) of Washington, DC, 1907-1934 Donald W. Kammer, 2024-07-16 The 1906 earthquake of Pentecostalism at the Azusa Street Mission in Los Angeles California sent a jolt to Washington DC during 1906 1907 This Washington DC shock wave began when a group of women read and acted upon reports in the Azusa Street Mission's Apostolic Faith newspaper This event resulted in the creation and development of an influential church in the District of Columbia Full Gospel Assembly In a well researched examination of a little recognized and nearly forgotten religious community in Washington DC retired United States Army chaplain Don Kammer explores the church's beginnings as part of the early twentieth century Pentecostal and Charismatic revival Full Gospel Assembly was an example of an early Pentecostal evangelistic fusion a common element in today's American evangelical religion Kammer identifies the challenges successes and the impact on the surrounding DC community As he leads others through FGA's fascinating history Kammer explains why the story of FGA is important reflects upon the conflicted definitions of Pentecostal and Charismatic Christianity describes popular malign portraits of holy rollers and tongue talkers tells the tales of meetings on the Electric Street Railway Line in theaters in Parlor Houses identifies denominational influence and much more The Full Gospel Assembly FGA of Washington DC 1907 1934 is a fascinating and comprehensive examination of the neglected history of an early twentieth century revival with ties to the 1906 Azusa Street Mission and revival A Peculiar People J. Spencer Fluhman, 2012-09-17 Though the U S Constitution guarantees the free exercise of religion it does not specify what counts as a religion From its founding in the 1830s Mormonism a homegrown American faith drew thousands of converts but far more critics In A Peculiar People J. Spencer Fluhman offers a comprehensive history of anti Mormon thought and the associated passionate debates about religious authenticity in nineteenth century America He argues that understanding anti Mormonism provides critical insight into the American psyche because Mormonism became a potent symbol around which ideas about religion and the state took shape Fluhman documents how Mormonism was defamed with attacks often aimed at polygamy and shows how the new faith supplied a social enemy for a public agitated by the popular press and wracked with social and economic instability Taking the story to the turn of the century Fluhman demonstrates how Mormonism's own transformations the result of both choice and outside force sapped the strength of the worst anti Mormon vitriol triggering the acceptance of Utah into the Union in 1896 and also paving the way for the dramatic yet still grudging acceptance of Mormonism as an American religion America, the Sorcerer's New Apprentice Dave Hunt, Thomas A. McMahon, 1988 Reincarnation Eastern mysticism channeling psychic phenomena Is America at the threshold of a glorious new age of enlightenment Or have we in our search for higher levels of human potential opened a spiritual Pandora's Box Who is right The authors conclusions are nothing less than staggering Amazon.com Intercultural Theology, Volume Two Henning Wrogemann, 2018-01-09 In this second volume of his three volume Intercultural Theology Henning Wrogemann turns to theologies of mission Tracing developments across a range of Christian traditions movements themes and regions of the globe Wrogemann provides an overview of the theological underpinnings rationalizations and visions for mission and its practice Christian History Alister E. McGrath, 2013-03-04 A major new introduction to the global history of Christianity written by one of the world's leading theologians and author of numerous bestselling textbooks Provides a truly global review by exploring the development of Christianity and related issues in Asia Latin America and Africa and not just focusing on Western concerns Spanning more than two millennia and combining elements of theology history and culture it traces the development of all three branches of Christianity Catholic Protestant and Orthodox providing context to Christianity's origins and its links to Judaism Looks beyond denominational history at Christianity's impact on individuals society politics and intellectual thought as well as on art architecture and the natural sciences Combines McGrath's acute historical sensibility with formidable organizational skill breaking the material down into accessible self contained historical periods Offers an accessible and student oriented text assuming little or no advance theological or historical knowledge on the part of the reader A Catechetical Commentary on the New Testament William Hurte, 1885
