NGOs Thomas Richard Davies, 2014 In the first historical account of international NGOs from the French Revolution to the present Thomas Davies places the contemporary debate on transnational civil society in context In contrast to the conventional wisdom which sees transnational civil society as a recent development taking place along a linear trajectory he explores the long history of international NGOs in terms of a cyclical process characterized by three major waves the era to 1914 the inter war years and the period since the Second World War The breadth of transnational civil society activities explored is unprecedented in its diversity from business associations to humanitarian organizations peace groups to socialist movements feminist organizations to pan nationalist groups The geographical scope covered is also extensive and the analysis is richly supported with reference to a diverse array of previously unexplored sources By revealing the role of civil society rather than governmental actors in the major transformations of the past two and a half centuries this book is for anyone interested in obtaining a new perspective on world history The analysis concludes in the second decade of the twenty first century providing insights into the trajectory of transnational civil society in the post 9 11 and post financial crisis eras

Visual Securitization Alice Massari, 2021-05-18 This open access book offers an innovative account of how relief organizations visual depiction of Syrian displacement contributes to reproduce and reinforce a securitized account of refugees Through visual analysis the book demonstrates how the securitization process takes place in three different ways First of all even if marginally it occurs through the reproduction of mainstream media and political accounts that have depicted refugees in terms of threats Secondly and more consistently through a representation of Syrian displaced people that despite the undeniable innovative aesthetic patterns focusing on dignity and empowerment continue to reinforce a visual narrative around refugees in terms of victimhood and passivity The reproduction of a securitized account takes also place through the dialectic between what is made visible in the pictures and what is not At the same time the book identifies visual glimmers and minor displacements in the humanitarian discourse that have the potentiality to produce alternative discourses on refugees and displacement beyond the mainstream securitized ones By showing how relief organizations visual representation contributes to the securitization of the refugee issue this book provides a great resource to students and academics in migration visuality humanitarianism and securitization as well as social scientists and policy makers

Activism across Borders since 1870 Daniel Laqua, 2023-08-10 From the Occupy protests to the Black Lives Matter movement and school strikes for climate action the twenty first century has been rife with activism Although very different from one another each of these movements has created alliances across borders with activists stressing that their concerns are not confined to individual nation states In this book Daniel Laqua shows that global efforts of this kind are not a recent phenomenon and that as long as there have been borders activists have sought to cross them Activism Across Borders since 1870 explores how individuals groups and organisations have fostered bonds in their quest for political and social change and considers the impact of national and ideological boundaries on their efforts Focusing on Europe but with a global outlook the book acknowledges the importance of imperial and postcolonial settings for groups and individuals that expressed far reaching ambitions From feminism and socialism to anti war campaigns and green politics this book approaches transnational activism with an emphasis on four features connectedness ambivalence transience and marginality In doing so it demonstrates the intertwined nature of different movements problematizes transnational action discusses the temporary nature of some alliances and shows how transnationalism has been used by those marginalized at the national

Humanist Advocacy Alistair Markland,2020-03-02 NGOs Knowledge Production and Global Humanist Advocacy is an empirically and theoretically rich account of how international non governmental organisations produce knowledge of and formulate understandings about the world around them The author applies critical and sociological perspectives to analyse the social and political limits of knowledge generated in support of global advocacy efforts aimed at enhancing human rights and preventing violent conflicts It is found that despite their transnational networks and claims to humanist universality the proximity of global advocates to Western power structures and elite social spaces delimits their worldviews and curtails the potential for radical departures from mainstream political thinking This book will be of interest to scholars and students of international relations human rights the sociology of knowledge peace and conflict studies and critical security studies

Tworek,2023-08-29 The Interwar World collects an international group of over 50 contributors to discuss analyze and interpret this crucial period in twentieth century history A comprehensive understanding of the interwar era has been limited by Euro American approaches and strict adherence to the temporal limits of the world wars The volume s contributors challenge the era s accepted temporal and geographic framings by privileging global processes and interactions Each contribution takes a global thematic approach integrating world regions into a shared narrative Three central questions frame the chapters First when was the interwar Viewed globally the years 1918 and 1939 are arbitrary limits and the volume explicitly engages with the artificiality of the temporal framework while closely examining the specific dynamics of the 1920s and 1930s Second where was the interwar Contributors use global history methodologies and training in varied world regions to decenter Euro American frameworks engaging directly with the usefulness of the interwar as both an era and an analytical category Third how global was the interwar Authors trace accelerating connections in areas such as public health and mass culture counterbalanced by processes of economic protectionism exclusive nationalism and limits to migration By approaching the era thematically the volume disaggregates and interrogates the meaning of the global in this era As a comprehensive guide this volume offers overviews of key themes of the interwar period for undergraduates while offering up to date historiographical insights for postgraduates and scholars interested in this pivotal period in global history

Development NGOs and Languages Hilary Footitt, Angela M. Crack, Wine Tisseur, 2020-08-12 This book addresses for the first time the question of how development NGOs attempt to listen to communities in linguistically diverse environments NGOs are under increasing pressure to demonstrate that they listen to the people and communities that they are trying to serve but this can be an immensely challenging task where there are significant language and cultural differences However until now there has been no systematic study of the role of foreign languages in development work The authors present findings based on interviews with a wide range of NGO staff and government officials NGO archives and observations of NGO community interaction in country case studies They suggest ways in which NGOs can reform their language policies to listen to the recipients of aid more effectively International Organizations Kelly-Kate S. Pease, Dani Belo, 2025-07-21 Drawing on mainstream and critical theoretical approaches International Organizations offers a comprehensive examination of the role of international organizations in world politics This text details the types and activities of international organizations and provides students with the conceptual tools needed to evaluate their effectiveness Surveying key issue areas including security trade development the environment and human rights International Organizations looks at global governance from a broad range of perspectives New to the Seventh Edition Inclusion of narratives to complement theoretical approaches to show how facts are used to frame reality and interpret world events Narratives are used to advocate and build support for particular policies and strategies Expanded analysis of International Security New chapter on Global Public Health with systematic treatment of the COVID 19 pandemic and the role of international organizations in identifying and managing the pandemic New sections on global finance and international humanitarian law Updated case studies on Iran and Ukraine Discussion questions to help students reflect on each chapter's content From Charity to Justice Vincent Fang, 2021-05-03 This book focuses on the ethical demands of extreme poverty and develops a political theory of practical change Welding together political realism and moral aspirations it argues that a re imagined form of development NGO can help the global North break free from the dominant and persistent charity paradigm and drift towards a justice based understanding of extreme poverty It offers an original explanation of why the charity paradigm persists and why the justice not charity messages from development NGOs have changed few minds The author argues that anyone concerned with a paradigm shift from charity to justice need to radically rethink the problem of political communication who should communicate what messages about extreme poverty in what ways Based on a rational choice critique of the competitive development NGO sector the author calls for sector wide reform and the emergence of a new political agent the Avant garde NGO which transcends the charity frame that NGOs currently find themselves locked in Further inspired by literary theory and social psychology he offers a fresh account of how the Avant garde NGO could through reflective public engagement induce attitude change and lead genuine social and political reform

Doing Labor Activism in South China Darcy Pan, 2020-06-01 How did labor NGOs come into existence in contemporary China How do labor activists act or not act when the limits of state tolerance are unclear With a focus on labor NGOs in South China and Western funding agencies this book sets out to address these questions by investigating the dynamics of state control in post socialist China since the 1970s in which rapid economic and social transformations have cultivated an environment of uncertainty Taking uncertainty as an analytical space productive of emergent practices and discourses this book draws on original fieldwork and interviews to study the lived experiences of different actors throughout the labor NGO community the foreign donors trying to bring about change and the networks of social relationships being strategically reconfigured Doing Labor Activism in South China offers an ethnography of the Chinese state that reveals an intimate and complicit modality of self governing demonstrating how neoliberal ideas are at once represented by international development and deflected in grassroots development It will be useful to students and scholars of Social Anthropology and Urban Ethnography as well as Political Science and Chinese Studies more generally
