This is definitely not a guide to parenting but it may make you feel a little less alone on the journey Creating Authentic Relationships with Parents of Young Children Carla Solvason,Johanna Cliffe,2022-09-28 Dealing with parents can be scary and intimidating especially when you are relatively new to your role but it can also be hugely rewarding What do you need to know Which barriers are you likely to face Most importantly how can you nurture a positive and authentic relationship with parents and carers where you genuinely work together for the best interests of the child Written by authors who have experienced being on both sides of the fence as educators and as parents this practical book takes a frank approach to recognising the turbulent world of parenting and shines a light on issues that are all too often dismissed It considers the pragmatic kind and caring ways that educational settings can support parents struggles as well as benefitting from their wide ranging knowledge and capabilities With activities and reflections included throughout the book invites the reader to consider their practice and to look at their relationships with parents with fresh eyes all whilst keeping the child in mind With a focus on celebrating the value of truly listening and forming authentic relationships this book will be essential

Englishman's Parenting in China Ian Mote,2022-09-22 I have lived in China for 13 years and my daughter was born there This book is made up of my experiences not just about becoming a parent for the first time but then about bringing up a child in China For instance I have had to deal with traditional medicine treatments that I could not even pronounce been embarrassed when my daughter at age two spoke more Chinese than I did and worked out that stairwells are great places for shadow boxing when you find yourself as the only man staying in a maternity centre Just do not punch a nurse when they walk past you This book is about being a Western father adjusting to parenting in Shanghai It is about negotiating with our carer to actually get to hold my daughter learning to sing Chinese lullabies using roughly the right Mandarin tones and wondering if I could rob a bank with an ice cream I wish to share parenting and living stories from all over China through the eyes of one proud curious worried adventurous shocked confused and really quite tired English Dad Ireland as Gaeilge
