Personal Narrative Prompts About Immigration:

Personal narratives of Irish and Scottish migration, 1921-65 Angela McCarthy, 2017-10-03 Between 1921 and 1965 Irish and Scottish migrants continued to seek new homes abroad Using the personal accounts of these migrants from letters interviews questionnaires and shipboard journals together with more traditional documentary sources such as immigration files and maritime records this book examines the experience of migration and settlement in North America and Australasia Through a close reading of personal testimonies the author highlights the assorted similarities and differences between the Irish and Scots Subtle differences rather than yawning cultural gaps are apparent similarities in attitude and expectation are more common than divergent or unique experiences The key revelation of the work is that despite a number of peculiarities characterising their individual and collective experiences of migration both the Irish and Scots were relatively successful migrants in the period under consideration Using interviews both spoken and written and tackling issues of why and how versions of the past are represented and what they mean this fascinating study considers individual and collective memory and the use of personal testimonies as historical evidence their uniqueness and typicality Furthermore in using personal narratives the book portrays individual migration experiences which are often hidden in studies based on statistical analysis

Migration and Identity through Creative Writing Alka Kumar, Anna Triandafyllidou, 2023-10-03 This open access book brings together storytelling and self narrative creative writing and narrative enquiry to explore a variety of topics in migration from an experiential lens The volume is hybrid and multi genre as it contains both scholarly chapters grounded in academic perspectives as well as personal essays and creative non fiction In addition to critical reflections on key migration topics and concepts like identity and diversity integration and agency transnationalism and return the scholarly chapters also propose a particular methodology for workshopping migration narratives and writing about personal lived experiences through iterations of scientific reflection narrative enquiry and creative imagination The book explores the potential of a new conceptual paradigm and methodological process to learn more and also differently about the migration experience Finally this volume asks a bigger question too how do we define the boundaries of research is it possible to entirely separate the spatial temporal and methodological parameters in which projects are developed and pursued and how can the specifics of these multiple contexts contribute to shaping the knowledge being produced Immigration: Views and Reflections.

Lori G. Wilfong,2015-04-24 Learn the ten keys to effective writing instruction In this dynamic book bestselling author Lori G Wilfong takes you through today s best practices for teaching writing and how to implement them in the classroom She also points out practices that should be avoided helping you figure out how to update your teaching so that all students can reach success You ll discover how to Make sure students have enough work in a genre before you assign writing Develop thoughtful short writing prompts that are infinite and not finite Have students read and learn from master authors in the genre they are writing Create a writing community so that writing is not an isolated activity Use anchor charts and minilessons along with rubrics and checklists Implement revising strategies not just editing strategies taught in context Use conferencing to grow students as thoughtful reflective writers Let narratives be personal and creative focusing on details and imagery Let informational writing explore a topic creatively and in depth Let argument writing be situated in real world application and not be limited to one sided what if debates Every chapter begins with an engaging scenario includes the why behind the practice and how it connects to the Common Core and clearly describes how implement the strategy The book also contains tons of handy templates that you can reproduce and use in your own classroom You can photocopy these templates or download them from our website at <http://www.routledge.com/books/details/9781138812444> Migration, Cosmopolitanism and Civil Society Feyzi Baban, Kim Rygiel, 2024-09-23 This book discusses the ways civil society initiatives open communities to newcomers and why how and under what circumstances some are more welcoming than others exploring the importance of transgressive cosmopolitanism as a basis for creating more inclusive and pluralistic societies The question of how to live together in increasingly multicultural multi ethnic and multireligious societies is a pressing political and policy issue particularly as we witness a rise in right wing populism and anti immigrant sentiments This book addresses the limitations of approaches that seek to secure borders preventing the arrival of newcomers altogether or that vacillate between assimilation and multiculturalism The authors explore the concept of cosmopolitanism and its utility by theorizing from real world examples including Germany's Welcome Culture and Denmark's Kind Citizens movements and other smaller scale initiatives such as arts and museum projects kitchen hubs and shared living accommodation Interdisciplinary in nature and bringing conceptual discussions together with everyday examples this book focuses on forms of activity generally left out of wider debates around protest and social movement literature It emphasizes different types of activities undertaken by civil society groups who do not necessarily self identify as political but whose activities can counter right wing populism This dialogue between concepts and everyday politics makes the volume a very useful companion to classroom discussion and will facilitate its own exchange between scholars activists and practitioners Migration Stories Benjamin Gatling, 2025-09-09 Migrants and refugees stories have become an essential part of the public debate around immigration Benjamin Gatling edits interdisciplinary essays that bring together the distinct perspectives of researchers activists and policymakers to emphasize how these often siloed communities can use stories as social science data and advocacy tools Ranging from oral history projects to the asylum process to calls for decolonial justice the contributors analyses illuminate how migrants and refugees personal narratives influence both perceptions and policies Their merger of perspectives provides a nuanced understanding of migration and emphasizes the importance of how storytelling can foster empathy challenge stereotypes and drive social change At the same time the essays center migrants and refugees voices within public debates and in work done to humanize the reality they face Original and multifaceted Migration Stories provides a vital addition to how we study and frame immigration Insider Research on Migration and Mobility Lejla Voloder, Liudmila Kirpitchenko, 2016-05-23 With an increasing proportion of migration and mobility field studies being conducted by migrants and members of ethnic minorities in home contexts the implications of insider research are increasingly subject critical scrutiny Researchers who may share migration experiences or cultural ethnic linguistic or religious identities with their participants are exploring the means ethics and politics of mobilizing insider capital for the purpose of gaining access to and representing research participants Bringing together the latest international scholarship in the sociology and anthropology of migration this volume explores the complexities joys and frustrations of conducting insider research The book offers analyses of key methodological ethical and epistemological challenges faced by migration researchers as they question the ways in which they come to identify with their research topic or their participants Addressing questions of identity and categorization ethics and methodology epistemology and situated knowledge Insider Research on Migration and Mobility will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in migration mobilities diaspora studies and ethnic and racial identities as well as those interested in qualitative research design and analysis

Skilled Migration and Global English Frances Giampapa, Suresh Canagarajah, 2020-04-28 The impact of globalisation is increasingly evident through both mass migration and the social political and economic changes that have produced new and growing social divides The increased mobility and the opening of national borders that have arisen as part of these changes has also meant a rise in the diversification of migration superdiversity in all its forms The multi sited flows of people have also led to the flow of knowledge culture and languages English as a global language has taken on a prominent role in the neoliberal discourses of commodification value and distinction and the role of language in the reproduction of social inequalities This edited volume explores a range of issues related to the role of language In particular it addresses competency in English and multilingualism both of which facilitate success for skilled migrants in the workplace and enable them to contribute to development efforts in their home communities In more general terms the book looks at the communicative competencies and language resources which skilled migrants require in order to engage productively in professional and development endeavours It examines the notion that English is the linguistic capital for skilled migration given its global status in higher education development and professional communication This book was originally published as a special issue of Globalisation Societies and Education

Developing a Critical Pedagogy of Migration Studies Teresa Piacentini, 2025-05-20 Migration as a taught subject is entrenched in social and political debates with the classroom firmly framed as a site of committed social and political encounter That means teaching migration through the prism of critical pedagogy is a political and ethical necessity This book invites readers to examine their own relationships with migration ethics politics and power It encourages teachers students and practitioners to think critically about their position in relation to the knowledge they both bring and gain With pedagogical features that provide space for reflection and discussion this is a transformative resource in reshaping how we teach and learn about migration library Migrant Aesthetics Glenda R. Carpio, 2023-10-31 Co winner 2024 Matei Calinescu Prize Modern Language Association By most accounts immigrant literature deals primarily with how immigrants struggle to adapt to their adopted countries Its readers have come to expect stories of identity formation of how immigrants create ethnic communities and maintain ties to countries of origin Yet such narratives can center exceptional stories of individual success or obscure the political forces that uproot millions of people the world over Glenda R Carpio argues that we need a new paradigm for migrant fiction Migrant Aesthetics shows how contemporary authors Teju Cole Dinaw Mengestu Aleksandar Hemon Valeria Luiselli Julie Otsuka and Junot Diaz expose the historical legacies and political injustices that produce forced migration through artistic innovation Their fiction rejects the generic features of immigrant literature especially the acculturation plot and the use of migrant narrators as cultural guides who must appeal to readerly empathy They emphasize the limits of empathy insisting instead that readers recognize their own roles in the realities of migration which like climate change is driven by global inequalities Carpio traces how these authors create literary echoes of the past showing how the history of neo colonialism links distinct immigrant experiences and can lay the foundation for cross ethnic migrant solidarity Revealing how migration shapes and is shaped by language and narrative Migrant Aesthetics casts fiction as vital testimony to past and present colonial imperial and structural displacement and violence Immigrant Experiences Paul H. Elovitz, Charlotte Kahn, 1997 This book gives powerful testimony to the possibilities of success even as it attests to the psychological costs of emigration and the struggles of immigration The necessity of creating a new cultural or national identity is a recurring theme as the authors of articles immigrants themselves and Americans sensitive to their families immigrant experiences address what has become an urgent question How can we facilitate the immigrants passage The U S culture has been forged by the influence of immigrant cultures too numerous to mention their representatives have made recognizable significant contributions while struggling to create a viable place for themselves in their adopted land Adult Language Education and Migration James Simpson, Anne Whiteside, 2015-03-27 Adult Language Education and Migration Challenging Agendas in Policy and Practice provides a lively and critical examination of policy and practice in language education for adult migrants around the world showing how opportunities for learning the language of a new country both shape and are shaped by policy moves Language policies for migrants are often controversial and hotly contested but at the same time innovative teaching practices are emerging in response to the language learning needs of today s mobile populations This book analyses and challenges language education policies relating to adult migrants in nine countries provides a comparative study with separate chapters on policy and practice in each country focuses on Australia Canada Spain Catalonia Finland France Ireland the Netherlands the UK and the US Adult Language Education and Migration is essential reading for practitioners students and researchers working in the area of language education in migration contexts Writing Elena L. Grigorenko, Elisa Mambrino, David D. Preiss, 2012-05-04 This book captures the diversity and richness of writing as it relates to different forms of abilities skills competencies and expertise Psychologists educators researchers and practitioners in neighboring areas are interested in exploring how writing develops and in what manner this development can be fostered but they lack a handy unified and comprehensive source of information to satisfy their interest The goal of this book is to fill this void by reflecting on the phenomenon of writing from a developmental perspective It contains an integrated set of chapters devoted to issues of writing how writing develops how it is and should be taught and how writing paths of development differ across writing genres Specifically the book addresses typologies of writing pathways of the development of writing skills stages of the development of writing individual differences in the acquisition of writing skills writing ability and disability teaching writing and the development and demonstration of expertise in writing A Century of Negro Migration Carter Godwin

Woodson,2019-12-04 In A Century of Negro Migration Carter Godwin Woodson provides a comprehensive analysis of the migration patterns of African Americans from the rural South to urban centers in the North and West during the 20th century Woodson employs a meticulous historical approach blending narrative with statistical evidence to illuminate the social economic and cultural factors driving this mass movement Utilizing a rich array of primary sources he scrutinizes the implications of migration on both the African American community and the broader American society positioning the work within the larger context of the Great Migration and the racial dynamics of the era Carter Godwin Woodson often referred to as the Father of Black History founded the Association for the Study of African American Life and History His scholarly pursuits were deeply influenced by his own experiences as a son of former slaves and his commitment to uncovering and promoting African American contributions to history Woodson s advocacy for understanding the African American experience through rigorous scholarship fueled his desire to address the neglect of this vital aspect of American history culminating in this seminal work This book is essential for anyone wishing to grasp the complexities of African American history and the socio economic transformations that shaped modern America Woodson s insightful observations and compelling arguments not only educate but also challenge readers to reflect on the ongoing impact of migration and resilience within the African American narrative
