

	Mastery	Proficient	Developing
Story	The text engages the reader and sets up the situation. The conflict is intriguing; the characters are complex and round, and the narrator has a realistic voice.	The text sets up the situation. The plot contains a conflict. The characters ring true, but they may not be fully developed. The same may be true about the narrative voice.	The situation and/or conflict may be vague. Characters and narrator need further revision to develop them.
Structure	The story builds effectively to carry the reader and highlight the themes. The writer may use techniques such as foreshadowing or flashback.	The story builds with a distinct beginning, middle, and end that work together.	The story needs some revision in terms of structure to gain cohesion. The story feels disjointed, as if the parts don't fit together well and distract from the overall message.
Writing Techniques	The text shows the effective use of writing techniques such as specific details, vivid description, apt diction, dialogue, figurative language, or the use of multiple plot lines.	The text shows the use of writing techniques such as specific details, description, dialogue or figurative language. These sometimes enhance the writing.	The text needs more or more effective writing techniques to enhance the narrative.
Conventions	The text contains few, if any, errors.	The text contains some errors.	The text contains distracting errors.
