However, the way the Chinese teach writing in various countries in contemporary times is little known to the outside world, especially in Western countries. Undoubtedly, the Chinese have had an established traditional method of writing instruction. However, recent social and political developments have created the perception amongst both practitioners and researchers of a need for change. Whilst certain socio-political changes both in Mainland China and in the territories acted as agents for reform of the teaching of composition, the shape these reforms are taking has been due to many different influences coming both from inside the countries themselves and from foreign sources. Mainland China, Hong Kong, Taiwan and Singapore have each developed their own approach to the teaching of composition. English Composition 1 C. V. Indira, 2006 This series is specially designed to enhance the child's writing skills. Children are encouraged to explore everyday situations and what they learn from them.
