Television Aesthetics Nikos Metallinos,2013-11-05 USE FIRST TWO PARAGRAPHS ONLY FOR GENERAL CATALOGS This volume offers a response to three ongoing needs to develop the main composition principles pertinent to the visual communication medium of television to establish the field of television aesthetics as an extension of the broader field of visual literacy and to promote television aesthetics to both students and consumers of television Based on effective empirical research from three axes perception cognition and composition the aesthetic principles of television images presented are drawn from converging research in academic disciplines such as psychology perceptual cognitive and experimental neurophysiology and the fine arts painting photography film theater music and more Although the aesthetics of the fine arts were traditionally built on contextual theories that relied heavily on subjective evaluation on critical analyses and on descriptive research methods the aesthetics of today's visual communication media consider equally valuable empirical methodologies found in all sciences. Investigations in these different academic disciplines have provided the constructs and strengthened the foundations of the theory of television aesthetics offered in this book. Special features include a great variety of pictures supporting the topics discussed, a thorough up-to-date and specifically related bibliography for each of the major parts of the book, computer drawings illustrating the concepts examined in the text, scientific data tables and charts documenting the research findings, cited simplified explanations of the processes of visual auditory and motion perceptions of images enhanced by specific diagrams, detailed analyses of the threefold process of stimulation, perception and recognition of televised images, and workable, easy-to-understand and use rules of picture composition, visual image evaluations and television program appreciation.
