Nobleman,2013-04-23 Well I hope you enjoyed the storiesall are TRUEthat I wanted to share with you in this book I promise to keep tabs on things that occur from this point on so that I can put them into the sequel Like I stated in the Preface anyone can write a book of this kindabout the crazy exotic experiences they have experienced or witnesses on subways buses cruises tour buses elevators and the like Its just a matter of putting your experiences to paper or computer files Throughout this book I made references to the fact that many people who also witnessed these occurrences sort of said or did nothing that they just did not want to get involved This was evident in their making believe that they did not see or hear anything that they were just oblivious to the situation that they just didnt want to get involved That is why I have coined the expression pulling a Sergeant Schultz Im confident that Sergeant Schultz played by the late John Banner in the 1960s series Hogans Heroes is the one who made believe he did not see or hear or know anything that was going on that wasnt acceptable His famous words were I see No THING No THING and I know No THING No THING This was evident in the Kitty Genovese murder case as occurred in Kew Gardens Queens New York City on March 13 1964 As described by Wikipedia Kitty Genovese was a young woman murdered by a killer who came back a second time to finish the job and nobodys none of those who heard or witnessed it intervened or called the police This has often been called the By Stander Effect or the Genovese Syndrome basically all those who heard the commotion or witnessed the crime pulled a Sergeant Schultz They saw NO THING No THING they heard No THING No THING they knew No THING No THING they DID No THING No THING One thing that I am hoping for is that the expression that I coined in this book pulling a Sergeant Schultz will become a new expression I think you know what I mean by new expression words and expressions that pop up over time and become part of the English language even unofficially words and expressions like dis right on rock n roll disco hip hop my bad couch potato going green ambulance chaser and many others One thing about these new words and expressions that they all seem to have in common is that nobody seems to know WHERE these words came from nor WHO actually coined them My hope is that pulling a Sergeant Schultz will become another one of those new expressions If that happens we will ALL know who coined it the one and only R J Nobleman and WHERE the phrase was coined SORRY FOR THE INCONVENIENCE GOING YOUR WAY

Reading Auschwitz Mary Lagerwey, 1998-10-27 My mind refuses to play its part in the scholarly exercise I walk around in a daze remembering occasionally to take a picture I've heard that many people cry here but I am too numb to feel The wind whips through my wool coat I am very cold and I imagine what the wind would have felt like for someone here fifty years ago without coat boots or gloves Hours later as I write I tell myself a story about the day hoping it is true and hoping it will make sense of what I did and did not feel _ From the Foreword Most of us learn of Auschwitz and the Holocaust through the writings of Anne Frank and Elie Wiesel Remarkable as their stories are they leave many voices of Auschwitz unheard Mary Lagerwey seeks to complicate our memory of Auschwitz by reading less canonical survivors Jean Amery Charlotte Delbo Fania Fenelon Szymon Laks Primo Levi and Sara Nomberg Przytyk She reads for how gender social class and ethnicity color their tellings She asks whether we can_ whether we should_ make sense of Auschwitz And throughout Lagerwey reveals her own role in her research tells of her own fears and anxieties presenting what she a non Jew born after the fall of Nazism can only know second hand For any student of the Holocaust for anyone trying to make sense of the final solution Reading Auschwitz represents a powerful struggle with what it means to read and tell stories after Auschwitz
