US backs PH in new dispute with China

THE United States renewed a warning that it would defend its treaty ally if Filipino forces come under attack in the disputed South China Sea, after a Chinese coast guard ship allegedly hit a Philippine patrol vessel with a military-grade laser that briefly blinded some of its crew.

The incident took place on February 10 when the Chinese coast guard ship boarded high-grade lasers to block the Philippine patrol vessel BRP Mindanao from approaching Second Thomas Shoal on a resupply mission for Filipino troops there, according to the Philippine officials.

US State Department spokesman Ned Price said China's "dangerous operational behavior directly threatens regional peace and stability, including upon freedom of navigation in the South China Sea in guaranteed under international law and undermines the rule-based international order."

"The United States stands with our Philippine allies," Price said in a statement.
