core to the curriculum and ethos of the intensely homosocial Victorian and Edwardian public schools yet ancient homosexuality and erotic pedagogy were problematic to the educational establishment which expurgated classical texts with sexual content This volume analyses the intimate and uncomfortable nexus between the Classics sex and education primarily through the figure of the schoolmaster Philip Gillespie Bainbrigge 1890 1918 whose clandestine writings not only explore homoerotic desires but also offer insightful comments on Classical education Now a marginalized figure Bainbrigge's surviving works a verse drama entitled Achilles in Scyros featuring a cross dressing Achilles and a Chorus of lesbian schoolgirls and a Latin dialogue between schoolboys vividly demonstrate the queer potential of Classics and are marked by a celebration of the pleasures of sex and a refusal to apologize for homoerotic desire Reprinted here in their entirety they are accompanied by chapters setting them in their social and literary context including their parallels with the writings of Bainbrigge's contemporaries and near contemporaries such as John Addington Symonds E M Forster and A E Housman What emerges is a provocative new perspective on the history of sexuality and the place of the Classics within that history which demonstrates that a highly queer version of Classics was possible in private contexts Financing the End-to-end Supply agendas are changing the nature of political accountability in advanced industrialized democracies While the economy remains important the book calls on students of political accountability to give greater attention to the role of non economic issues Comparative Politics is a series for researchers teachers and students of political science that deals with contemporary government and politics Global in scope books in the series are characterized by a stress on comparative analysis and strong methodological rigour The series is published in association with the European Consortium for Political Research For more information visit www.ecprnet.eu The series is edited by Nicole Bolleyer Chair of Comparative Political Science Geschwister Scholl Institut LMU Munich and Jonathan Slapin Professor of Political Institutions and European Politics Department of Political Science University of Zurich
