Illustrated* by Eugenio Dragutescu Archibald Laurence LYALL, 1956 Subverted Sue Ellen Browder, 2015-10-06 Contraception and abortion were not originally part of the 1960s women's movement How did the women's movement which fought for equal opportunity for women in education and the workplace and the sexual revolution which reduced women to ambitious sex objects become so united In Subverted Sue Ellen Browder documents for the first time how it all happened in her own life and in the life of an entire country Trained at the University of Missouri School of Journalism to be an investigative journalist Browder unwittingly betrayed her true calling and became a propagandist for sexual liberation As a long time freelance writer for Cosmopolitan magazine she wrote pieces meant to soft sell unmarried sex contraception and abortion as the single woman's path to personal fulfillment She did not realize until much later that propagandists higher and cleverer than herself were influencing her thinking and her personal choices as they subverted the women's movement The thirst for truth integrity and justice for women that led Browder into journalism in the first place eventually led her to find forgiveness and freedom in the place she least expected to find them Her in depth research her probing analysis and her honest self reflection set the record straight and illumine a way forward for others who have suffered from the unholy alliance between the women's movement and the sexual revolution

Filling Our Father's House

Shaun McAfee, 2015-04-06 Converts often bring to the Catholic Church an evangelical zeal that can renew and energize even the most tired and battle weary among us. The Church is hurting for enthusiastic voices to proclaim her teachings on truth and morals. In these pages Shaun McAfee, a convert from Evangelical Protestantism, shows how we can take the best tools of evangelization and use them to reach countless souls with the fullness of the Christian Faith. With Shaun's help you'll learn simple ways you can make the visitor in your parish more at home, how to speak compellingly about the Faith, simple ways to integrate daily Scripture reading into your life, why small groups are important for spiritual enrichment, and how to communicate with souls who have never considered joining the Catholic Church. The simple steps Shaun outlines in these pages will also show priests and lay leaders how to more effectively engage modern society with our Catholic Faith. Our society is awash in secularism. It's eating away at the sense of God, and the emptying of the pews in our own parishes is its natural effect. What we need is a renewal of enthusiasm for the battle against secularism, and this book is a beginner's guide to getting us back on track.
