

Directions: As you read each scene in Romeo and Juliet, you will complete four entries in the Double Entry Journal. Each entry must have a quotation written in the left column (it should be more than one line) and your response in the right column. Your response MUST include the following:

First, identify the speaker.

Second, explain the context or situation taking place (where, when, on time of day, or what is going on, etc.).

Third, explain what the quotation means and how it is significant to the plot (position, rising action, etc.) of the play.

Fourth, note any literary devices (similes, metaphors, symbolism, hyperbole, personification, allusion, etc.).

In my example, you will note weak and strong responses. Make sure to utilize your Best English practices, spelling, and vocabulary, and analyze the quotations deeply (not just restating what you think it says). Remember to comment on the significance of the quote in relation to other literary elements or events in the play.

QUOTATION	RESPONSE
Sample: from the Prologue From forth the fatal loins of these two foes A pair of star-crossed lovers take their life; Whose misadventured piteous overthrows Do with their death bury their parents' strife. (1-5)	Speaker: Chorus Situation: would Romeo and Juliet die. Situation: strong! Through the prologue has no definitive time and place, the reader knows that in Shakespeare's day the audience would not have any knowledge as to what the play was about. The prologue serves as a modern day movie trailer. In it, we learn that as a result of the parents' being enemies, the two lovers MUST commit suicide to be with one another even in death. Their deaths will end the feud between the families. Significance: would killing yourself is bad and selfish and people will be upset. Significance: strong! Romeo and Juliet probably had no choice but to take their lives. Committing suicide is a bold statement and by doing so, the lovers forced the families to reflect on how silly and useless it is to hold a grudge. Literary Devices: would There's a comparison with a pair of star crossed lovers. Literary Devices: strong! Shakespeare uses symbolism when he states how "A pair of star crossed lovers take their life" "Star-crossed" shows how Romeo and Juliet's love was doomed from the start (starts before birth, the two characters' paths crossed each other, and were meant to be intertwined). This refers to fate, and that no one has control over circumstances, since Romeo and Juliet's affair ended tragically.

to Adolescents Richard Beach, Deborah Appleman, Bob Fecho, Rob Simon, 2016-03-10 This popular textbook introduces prospective and practicing English teachers to current methods of teaching literature in middle and high school classrooms. It underscores the value of providing students with a range of different critical approaches and tools for interpreting texts and the need to organize literature instruction around topics and issues of interest to them. Throughout the textbook, readers are encouraged to raise and explore inquiry-based questions in response to authentic dilemmas and issues they face in the critical literature classroom. New in this edition, the text shows how these approaches to fostering responses to literature also work as rich tools to address the Common Core English Language Arts Standards. Each chapter is organized around specific questions that English educators often hear in working with pre-service teachers. Suggested pedagogical methods are modelled by inviting readers to interact with the book through critical inquiry methods for responding to texts. Readers are engaged in considering authentic dilemmas and issues facing literature teachers through inquiry-based responses to authentic case narratives. A Companion Website <http://teachingliterature.pbworks.com> provides resources and enrichment activities, inviting teachers to consider important issues in the context of their current or future classrooms.

Teaching English as a Second Language with Shakespeare Fabio Ciambella, 2024-06-30 Teaching pragmatics, that is, language in use, is one of the most difficult and consequently neglected tasks in many English as a Second Language classrooms. This Element aims to address a gap in the scholarly debate about Shakespeare and pedagogy, combining pragmatic considerations about how to approach Shakespeare's language today in ESL classes and practical applications in the shape of ready-made lesson plans for both university and secondary school students. Its originality consists in both its structure and the methodology adopted. Three main sections cover different aspects of pragmatics: performative speech acts, discourse markers, and im/politeness strategies. Each section is introduced by an overview of the topic and state of the art; then, details are provided about how to approach Shakespeare's plays through a given pragmatic method. Finally, an example of an interactive ready-made lesson prohibition in Article 51 of the UN Charter The modern jus ad bellum should thus legally recognise a dual face of defence responsive self defence if an armed attack occurs and interceptive necessity defence if a grave and urgent threat of an armed attack occurs For without a clarifying and modernising revision the concept of defence will become irreparably blurred until it is completely dissolved into the ever shifting sands of war No Fear Shakespeare: A Companion William
