Not Another Happy Ending:

Not Another Cinderella Story Deanna Ricketts, 2020-04-24 After Sandy's life is torn apart by her husband's betrayal, her future is nothing like she dreamed it would be. Her life becomes routine and boring. That is, until a new neighbour moves in and they begin a whirlwind romance with him. And yet, Sandy is always questioning why he has chosen to be with her. Sandy quickly finds out that he is not the man he presents himself to be. Life means nothing to him. He wants what he wants and will run over anyone in his path. Leaving carnage and chaos in his wake. The new romance changes everything from a bad dream to an even worse nightmare in Sandy's life. This isn't the Cinderella story she was hoping for. All she can hope for now is to get out alive.

Music in Contemporary French Cinema Phil Powrie, 2017-06-29 This book explores composed scores and pre-existing music in French cinema from 1985 to 2015, so as to identify critical musical moments. It shows how heritage films construct space through music, generating what Powrie calls 'third space' music, while also working to contain the strong women characters found in French heritage films through the use of leitmotifs and musical cues. He analyses fiction films in which the protagonists perform at the piano, showing how musical performance supports the performance of gender. Building on aspects of musical performance, and in particular the use of songs performed in films, Powrie uses a database of 300 films since 2010 to theorize the intervention of music at critical moments as a 'crystal song'. Applying Roland Barthes's concept of the punctum and Gilles Deleuze's concept of the crystal image, Powrie establishes the importance of the crystal song, which reconfigures time as a crystallization of past, present, and future.

Keith Booker,2002-01-30 In America the long 1950s were marked by an intense skepticism toward utopian alternatives to the existing capitalist order This skepticism was closely related to the climate of the Cold War in which the demonization of socialism contributed to a dismissal of all alternatives to capitalism This book studies how American novels and films of the long 1950s reflect the loss of the utopian imagination and mirror the growing concern that capitalism brought routinization alienation and other dehumanizing consequences The volume relates the decline of the utopian vision to the rise of late capitalism with its expanding globalization and consumerism and to the beginnings of postmodernism In addition to well known literary novels such as Nabokov s Lolita Booker explores a large body of leftist fiction popular novels and the films of Alfred Hitchcock and Walt Disney The book argues that while the canonical novels of the period employ a utopian aesthetic that aesthetic tends to be very weak and is not reinforced by content The leftist novels on the other hand employ a realist aesthetic but are utopian in their exploration of alternatives to capitalism The study concludes that the utopian energies in cultural productions of the long 1950s are very weak and that these works tend to dismiss utopian thinking as naïve or even sinister The weak utopianism in these works tends to be reflected in characteristics associated with postmodernism
