True
- 1.2 In Executive Council of the Western Cape Legislature v President of the Republic of South Africa 1995 (4) SA 877 (CC) it was held that Parliament can delegate its power to make, amend and repeal Acts of Parliament to the executive because it is universally accepted in modern societies that Parliament cannot attend to every single task that it is enjoined to perform. An unfortunate consequence of this is that there is virtually no separation of state and party in the present South African context. It is illustrated by the fact that Parliament was not prepared to deal decisively with the issue of non-security upgrades to President Zuma's private residence in Nkandla. (1)
