Bushmen in the Tourist Imaginary Roie Thomas,2016-12-14 This book is a semantic and semiotic analysis of tourism texts that represent specific groups of San or Bushmen in modern Botswana and is framed by postcolonial theory post tourism and resistance theories Critically the book demonstrates the power that both written and visual language can have upon consumers of texts It provides a case study of neo colonial exploitation and conversely reveals the efficacy of self representation for tourist consumption with an increasing number of San offering alternatives to an entrenched ethnic hegemony effecting gradual political and social recognition and autonomy As such the book is written in a spirit of optimism for the burgeoning self determination of a long marginalised group The United States Army and Navy Journal and Gazette of the Regular and Volunteer Forces ,1888 Passionate Mothers, Powerful Sons Charlotte Gray,2023-09-12 A captivating dual biography of two famous women whose sons would change the course of the 20th century by award winning historian Charlotte Gray Born into upper class America in the same year 1854 Sara Delano later to become the mother of Franklin Delano Roosevelt and Jennie Jerome later to become the mother of Winston Churchill refused to settle into predictable sheltered lives as little known wives to prominent men Instead both women concentrated their energies on enabling their sons to reach the epicentre of political power on two continents In the mid 19th century the British Empire was at its height France s Second Empire flourished and the industrial vigor of the United States of America was catapulting the republic towards the Gilded Age Sara and Jennie raised with privilege but subject to the constraints of women s roles at the time learned how to take control of their destinies Sara in the prosperous Hudson Valley and Jennie in the glittering world of Imperial London Yet their personalities and choices were dramatically different A vivacious extrovert Jennie married Lord Randolph Churchill a rising politician and scion of a noble British family Her deft social and political maneuverings helped not only her mercurial husband but once she was widowed her ambitious son Winston By contrast deeply conventional Sara Delano married a man as old as her father But once widowed she made Franklin her only child the focus of her existence Thanks in large part to her financial support and to her guidance Franklin acquired the skills he needed to become a successful politician Set against one hundred years of history Passionate Mothers Powerful Sons is a study in loyalty and resilience Gray argues that Jennie and Sara are too often presented as lesser figures in the backdrop of history rather than as two remarkable individuals who were key in shaping the characters of the sons who adored them and in preparing them for leadership on the world stage Impeccably researched and filled with intriguing social insights Passionate Mothers Powerful Sons breathes new life into Sara and Jennie offering a fascinating and fulsome portrait of how leaders are not just born but made The National Druggist ,1912 American Book Publishing Record ,2002

This book is the next volume in Levering's Engaging Doctrine series. The prior volume of the series examined the doctrine of creation. The present volume examines the purpose of creation, the marriage of God and humans. God created the cosmos for the purpose of the marriage of God and his people, and through his people, the marriage of God and the entire creation. Given that the central meaning or prime analogate of marriage is the marriage of God and humankind, the study of human marriage needs to be shaped by this eschatological goal and foregrounded as a dogmatic theme. After a first chapter defending and explaining the biblical witness to the marriage of God and his people, the book explores various themes: marriage as an image of God, original sin as the fall of the primordial marriage, the cross of Jesus Christ and marital self-sacrificial love, the procreative and unitive ends of marriage, marriage as a sacrament, and marriage's importance for social justice and for the upbuilding of the kingdom of God. Along the way, the book provides an introduction to the key biblical, patristic, medieval, modern, and contemporary thinkers and controversies regarding the doctrine of marriage. Seventh Regiment Gazette, 1919
