The Biblical "One Flesh" Theology of Marriage as Constituted in Genesis 2:24 René Gehring, 2013-08-12 This book provides a thorough study of the sole biblical foundation of marriage as given in the short description of Genesis 2 24 For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife and they shall become one flesh All the other biblical texts dealing with marriage are traced back to this basis that was declared as the original ideal by Jesus even in the times of the New Testament and the emerging Christian church Thoughts about crucial questions concerning marriage divorce remarriage and even what we might expect of marriage in the world to come are thus presented in the light shining forth from the first pages of the Scriptures The intriguing connections to the biblical plan of redemption conversion and baptism are also investigated developing a deeper understanding of the human divine covenant that is exemplified by this beautiful Edenic marriage pattern

Gustav Mahler Alfred Rosenzweig, 2007 Alfred Mathis Rosenzweig 1897 1948 a Viennese musicologist and critic embarked on producing a large scale study of Mahler in 1933 but left an unfinished manuscript at the time of his death Here Jeremy Barham prepares the first published edition of this important work his annotations and commentary adding invaluable material to the translation Biographical material is used as a loose framework and platform for Mathis Rosenzweig s profound examination of the environment within which Mahler s earlier music was embedded an environment in which Wagner Bruckner and Wolf feature prominently and in which Mahler s music is viewed from the wider perspective of nineteenth century German cultural domination and the subsequent rise of political extremism in the form of Hitlerite fascism
