My Day

It was a fantastic summer day in July 1970, in my home town of Newcastle, in the North of Ireland. I was ten years old and enjoying the freedom that the summer brought to me and my sisters. We were allowed by my mother to play all day on the beach, and come home when we were tired or hungry. No one checked up on us, or worried about what we were doing.

The trouble started that morning, when my mother told my younger sister, Grace, to wear her old glasses when going out to play, as her new ones would get broken or lost. She refused and so we left for the beach with Grace in her good Sunday glasses. My mother had warned us "not to come home, if anything happens to them....." We left the house without a care in the world.

We went to our favourite area of the beach, where there was plenty of large stones to step on. These kept the sand out of your shoes, and no one else really wanted to go there. All afternoon we played and swam in the salty
