

PERSONAL EXPERIENCE ESSAY EXAMPLE

There are many definitions that explain the notion of emotion. I have learned that emotions are complex internal subjective thoughts of the state, or the reaction of our body to our thoughts that are related to events in our environment. A definition that I take as my guide is that our emotions and our ability to show it or hide it ourselves are in fact – a reflection of our own personalities. All we do, how we live, our behavior, character is conditioned by our thinking and our feelings. It is said that the child is the parent of an adult man. This claim can be especially proven when it comes to emotions.

It is well known that the development of emotion is largely influenced by the factor of heritage, learning and observation of the environment, the attitude of parents and families. If a child grows in a functional family, where the relations between parents are healthy, as they are filled with love, a child will have the ability to develop and become an emotionally balanced person. A child grows not only from food but also from motherly love. The term mother's love is taken on a parole because it does not have to be a biological parent. The closeness and feeling of attachment and affiliation is important.

As a high school student I had to take a practice at the Pediatric Hospital where I have been able to see how important this physical contact with a small child is. There was a baby, about six months old, the baby went to a foster home. Preparing for the appointment of future nurses, we had the right to feed him. If we feed the child laying, while only mechanically sticking it to the bottle, it took the food unkempt. We did not held her in our arms.

At that time the professor warned us about such an important link in the growth of each child. What we learn in childhood will be like emotional luggage throughout our lives. Then the enrichment of the child's world, the ability of the child to demonstrate or the obligation to
