through food she shares not only her experiences with cooking but also her family's immigration story. When Pons was faced with the possibility of deportation and she and her family struggled to navigate the US immigration system in the country that had been their home for 16 years, she looked to these recipes for help. To fund her family's significant legal fees, she sold self-published copies of Mamacita and the cookbook became both a symbol of their journey and a rallying cry. This new edition of Mamacita offers 30 more photos and 11 additional recipes, allowing you to taste even more of the love in Pons's dishes. Foreword by James Beard Award nominee Hetty Lui McKinnon.
