

Mexican Consulate in Milan, Italy

Milan, Italy, 20th February 2015

Miss Linda Giozza collaborated with the Mexican Consulate of Milan, Italy, doing an internship from the 17th of November 2014 to the 17th of February 2015. Miss Giozza specialised, in particular, in the consular services, performing jobs of assistance to the public, control of the requirements for the release of the documents (visas, passports, certificates and other papers), telephone information service and control of the email inbox.

During her internship at the Mexican Consulate, Miss Giozza has always performed her tasks with efficiency and competence, demonstrating at all times to have responsibility, diligence, discretion and a fast learner ability, spirit of initiative and problem solving skills. Furthermore, her polite, cheerful and respectful character has proved to have a positive response in dealing with the public and in the relationship with the colleagues.

Regards,

Gabina Maria Beatriz Baños Gaxga

Contextual Frames of Reference in Translation Ernst Wendland, 2014-04-08 Bible translation theory and practice rightly tend to focus on the actual text of Scripture But many diverse yet interrelated contextual factors also play an important part in the implementation of a successful translation program The aim of this coursebook is to explore in varying degrees of detail a wide range of these crucial situational variables and potential influences using a multidisciplinary approach to the task Thus in order to expand and enrich the field of vision a progressive study of this complex process of intercultural interlinguistic communication is carried out according to a set of overlapping sociocultural organizational and situational cognitive orientations These contextual factors provide a broader frame of reference for analyzing interpreting and communicating the original Scriptures in a completely new contemporary setting of transmission and reception The three dimensions are then applied in a practical way to explore the dramatic throne room vision of the Apostle John Revelation 4 5 with reference to both the original Greek text and also a modern dynamic translation in Chewa a southeastern Bantu language of Africa A variety of exercises and assignments to stimulate critical and creative reflection as well as to illustrate the theoretical development of Contextual Frames of Reference is provided every step of the way Not only is translation per se discussed but the teaching and evaluation of translated texts and versions are also considered from several points of view in the final three chapters An Appendix offers a foundational essay by Professor Lourens de Vries on the subject of primary orality and the influence of this vital factor in the crosscultural communication of the Bible

Fellowships , 1994 Translation as Actor-Networking Wenyan Luo, 2020-02-07 This book employs actor network theory ANT to explore the making of the English translation of a work of Chinese canonical fiction Journey to the West demonstrating how ANT as applied to Translation Studies can contribute to a richer understanding of the translation process The volume builds on previous research to apply ANT theory to translation studies by looking in depth at a single work highlighting the unique factors underpinning the making of Monkey Arthur Waley's English translation of the Chinese classic

Journey to the West which make the work an ideal candidate for showing ANT theory in practice in translation Luo uses an in depth exploration of the work to examine the ways in which both human and nonhuman translation actors and agents interact in different ways in the publication of this translation showcasing them as dynamic changing and active participants whose roles shifted over the course of the translation process rather than as fixed entities as traditionally categorized in existing research The book moves beyond a descriptive account of an ANT based case study toward offering a systematic theoretical and methodological framework of ANT based translation studies using the conclusions drawn from its application to a single work to suggest a way forward for applying ANT in translation production on a wider scale This book will be of interest to scholars in translation studies sociology and comparative literature particularly those interested in actor network theory or network studies and their application to related disciplinary fields Koreana - Spring 2016 \(English\) The Korea Foundation,2016-03-28 Koreana is a full color quarterly on Korean culture and arts including traditional heritage as well as modern and contemporary activities Each issue includes in depth coverage of a selected theme followed by an array of articles on artists and artisans historic and cultural landmarks natural attractions reviews of stage performances and exhibitions literary pieces and today s lifestyles Published since 1987 the magazine can also be accessed at www.koreana.or.kr

Misreading Law, Misreading Democracy Victoria Nourse,2016-09-26 Victoria Nourse argues that lawyers must be educated on the basic procedures that define how Congress operates today Lawmaking creates winners and losers If lawyers and judges do not understand this they may embrace the meanings of those who opposed legislation turning legislative losers into judicial winners and standing democracy on its head

Multilingualism and History Aneta Pavlenko,2023-04-27 We often hear that our world is more multilingual than ever before but is it true This book shatters that cliché It is the first volume to shine light on the millennia long history of multilingualism as a social institutional and demographic phenomenon Its fifteen chapters written in clear accessible language by prominent historians classicists and sociolinguists span the period from the third century BC to the present day and range from ancient Rome and Egypt to medieval London and Jerusalem from Russian Ottoman and Austro Hungarian empires to modern Norway Ukraine and Spain Going against the grain of traditional language histories these thought provoking case studies challenge stereotypical beliefs foreground historic normativity of institutional multilingualism and language mixing examine the transformation of polyglot societies into monolingual ones and bring out the cognitive and affective dissonance in present day orientations to multilingualism where celebrations of linguistic diversity coexist uneasily with creation of language police
