This book is designed for criminal justice instructors It requires them to help students work through the various police reports The reports are intentionally left incomplete to require students to work through them Some reports may seem to ask confusing questions which may lead to unreliable responses This is to be used as a lesson unreliable responses create statistics that are not valid Managers need to improve the forms in order to obtain valid data This book first discusses communication theory and how it applies to police officers and prosecutors in the courtroom Information presented in the courtroom by police officers has a significant impact upon the jurors Indeed police officers communicate both verbally and nonverbally in the courtroom and this affects their credibility on the stand Furthermore by employing persuasion theories prosecutors can align the officers testimonies to the jurors particular communication preference Second this book discusses truth as it relates to probable cause and beyond reasonable doubt Finally because report writing is a significant part of police work this book presents a variety of police forms that will engage students in written communication Report Geographic Board of Canada,1922 The Police Journal ,1924 Report of the Commissioner ... Royal Canadian Mounted Police,1897 Fins, Feathers and Fur ,1928 Deadly Encounters Barbara Smith,1994-07-01 Quiet pleasant communities sparkling under the clear blue skies of Alberta have witnessed bloody murders and violent mayhem From a wide variety of accounts Babara Smith has selected eight intriguing stories that will astound and amaze you Mystery still surrounds the fate of pro golfer Frank Willey who disappeared in 1962 Two men were convicted of his murder but his body has never been found No suspect however was ever found in the case of MaryAnn Plett The pretty young real estate agent disappeared after going to show a property to a client but some skeletal remains were discovered seven months later In 1948 a family could hardly have guessed that their newly purchased home would come complete with a corpse and in another case Winnie Wanner s bathroom was found splattered with blood Although her estranged husband was seen leaving the apartment with a suspiciously large bag Winnie vanished from the face of the earth These chilling tales previously little known outside Alberta also include matters of greed rum running shoot outs and hostages They will be every bit as fascinating to the crime buff as those found anywhere
