

Reflection on Volunteering in the Community Service

3 pages | 681 words

The idea of community service was a bore to me before I started my volunteer work. I was scared to start my community service even though I knew I had to do it. I didn't even care about where I earned my hours. I just wanted to get it over with. To my surprise, it wasn't exactly what I expected. Community service has not been a painful experience; it has been a very enjoyable and beneficial experience. I performed my community service with Dual Blessing Sdn Bhd. Dual Blessings provides services such as vocational training to achieve a breakthrough in their lives that enables disabilities to have better job opportunities. On that day of servicing, I managed to have a sharing session with Mr Goh, which was the person in charge of the organization, and got to know the insights of some other friends with disability. Hence, I understand their pasts and gave them appropriate confidence and encouragement for them to step back into the society. All of us are living on the Earth that is a habitat for humanity, and we were not placed here by chance. If we are living together, we have the responsibility for each other. We should help anyone who is in need and be sympathetic to others. They are also very motivated because as follows by the quote said by Mr. Goh "Instead of giving them fish, we teach how to fish". They have never asked anything from anyone and worked for everything to the best extend within their capabilities. I helped them to cook lunch and clean up their surroundings and places where they couldn't reach. During the time I understand that I do this work because I love those people and want to make their life easier. I wasn't because of the responsibilities, it was because I wanted to do that. Nobody's going to pay me, nobody's going to say "thank you," but I still wanted to help others. I found out that community service helps us understand a lot of things we've never known of before. This helps me to think about the motivations and consequences of my daily actions, and also help me to set my goals properly. Community service has helped me to notice other people who have surrounded me and become a true part of society, not just a factual part of it. I found that it's not difficult to volunteer for community service, and all the lessons I've learned will have a significant impact on my future life. The construction of community service requires people to work in groups, I'm sure it's another big advantage that shouldn't be overlooked. If you work in a group, you connect with others, and this contact will change a lot in your life. First of all, you've got a chance to learn from others. Community service does not require any specific training or education to become a member of it. Obviously, not everyone is completely aware of things, and that's a good chance to learn from someone who is more skilled. I have never been a good cook, but the time...

Service-Learning in Higher Education in Africa Titus O. Pacho, 2019-01-15 This book will help stakeholders in higher education appreciate service learning as an innovative and active approach with the potential to enrich students learning experiences while adding value to the service mission of higher education The approach not only links academic learning to everyday life but also exposes students to a variety of opportunities for the development of life and career skills The book will serve to bring university teaching out of the clouds and restore in students minds the connection between what they are learning and the people their education is meant to help The approach advocated here will serve to have a long term and salutary effect on the whole nature of university learning When students are given the opportunity to participate actively in the learning process which includes civic engagement they will be able to learn not only theoretically but also experientially through practice as experience is generally one of the best ways to learn Social Work and Service Learning Meryl Nadel, Virginia Majewski, Marilyn Sullivan-Cosetti, 2007 Service learning and social work education comprise an exciting yet underutilized partnership This book represents the first comprehensive overview of this active and empowering approach to learning in social work Both educators and practitioners will discover conceptual and practical guidance for developing productive community based projects Often envisioned as located at the midpoint on a continuum from volunteer work to internship service learning combines the opportunity to serve with the opportunity to learn It offers community agencies a chance to collaborate with academic colleagues to meet identified community needs frequently with an explicit social justice dimension The contributors illustrate how service learning facilitates students understanding and interacting with community members as partners not clients Service learning encourages students to use critical thinking skills to reflect on their work and its implications This combination of study action reflection in conjunction with course content is highly effective The book explores its subject from several perspectives The first section serves as a conceptual and theoretical orientation to service learning in social work The second section offers models that illustrate many ways of implementing service learning across the components of the social work curriculum The final two parts of the book focus on evaluation and service learning in the broader context of civic engagement Service Learning in Higher Education Phylis Lan

Lin, 2009-02-25 Service Learning has proved to be a powerful and practical methodology and tool with far reaching implications Benefits have included increased civic engagement enhanced sense of purpose greater feeling of fulfillment nurtured creativity and promotion of problem solving skills and social responsibility as traditional classrooms have moved to the communities and students have become service providers and learners The papers in this book span a good part of the globe and cover a wide application spectrum from health care business administration nursing occupational therapy and speech and language therapy to gerontology and food service Extended models and prototypes explored include community engaged learning long distance learning and the bridge between older and younger students In addition to current perspectives and numerous revealing case studies with local communities and international service learning projects thirty chapters and a reflection paper are devoted to documenting lessons learning assessing service learning programs identifying new challenges and tapping into the emerging paradigms in service learning Exemplars of Assessment in Higher Education Jane Marie Souza, Tara A. Rose, 2023-07-03 Co published with While assessment may feel to constituents like an activity of accountability simply for accreditors it is most appropriate to approach assessment as an activity of accountability for students Assessment results that improve institutional effectiveness heighten student learning and better align resources serve to make institutions stronger for the benefit of their students and those results also serve the institution or program well during the holistic evaluation required through accreditation from the foreword by Heather Perfetti President of the Middle States Commission on Higher Education Colleges and universities struggle to understand precisely what is being asked for by accreditors and this book answers that question by sharing examples of success reported by schools specifically recommended by accreditors This compendium gathers examples of assessment practice in twenty four higher education institutions twenty three in the U S and one in Australia All institutions represented in this book were suggested by their accreditor as having an effective assessment approach in one or more of the following assessment focused areas assessment in the disciplines co curricular course program institutional assessment equity and inclusion general education online learning program review scholarship of teaching and learning student learning or technology These examples recommended by accrediting agencies makes this a unique contribution to the assessment literature The book is organized in four parts Part One is focused on student learning and assessment and includes ten chapters The primary focus for Part Two is student learning assessment from a disciplinary perspective and includes four chapters Part Three has a faculty engagement and assessment focus and Part Four includes four chapters on institutional effectiveness and assessment with a focus on strategic planning This book is a publication of the Association for the Assessment of Learning in Higher Education AALHE an organization of practitioners interested in using effective assessment practice to document and improve student learning

Gender Identity, Equity, and Violence Geraldine B. Stahly, 2023-07-03 The authors of the thirteen chapters in this volume bring excitement and innovations to teaching about gender from a wide range of theoretical and discipline perspectives They exhibit the inclusiveness that is central to feminist pedagogy a perspective that centers the educational enterprise in the analysis of the interconnectedness of social categories that have traditionally divided and given root to inequality and oppression and aims for no less than social transformation Empowerment is a core value in gender education and the experiential approach nurtures that goal This volume provides many examples of the power of learning through experience as the authors demonstrate that the authority of the feminist teacher as intellectual and theorist finds expression in the goal of making students themselves theorists of their own lives by interrogating and analyzing their own experience Weiler 1991 To stimulate the adaptation of the approaches described in these books each volume includes an Activity Methodology table that summarizes key elements of each example such as class size pedagogy and other disciplinary applications
