Abstract

These activities, supporting South African investment initiatives to reduce an otherwise volatile economy, simultaneously generate an opportunity to harvest all prior investment experience gained that Colonial, British, Dutch and the apartheid South African and Apartheid South African governments have previously acquired. Thus, it is an opportunity for South Africa and foreign corporations to gain the investment experience and talent needed.

The above results are the generalizations of all of Theorem 1 results. There is no comment needed for the reason.

1. The first step is to identify the problem.
 2. The second step is to define the problem.
 3. The third step is to analyze the problem.
 4. The fourth step is to develop a solution.
 5. The fifth step is to implement the solution.
 6. The sixth step is to evaluate the solution.
 7. The seventh step is to monitor the solution.
 8. The eighth step is to maintain the solution.
 9. The ninth step is to improve the solution.
 10. The tenth step is to document the solution.

It might be appropriate however, please refer the job search programme located on the website page.
The programme involves a 12 day course that includes, amongst other things a theoretical part followed by a part with a focus on the practical side with good illustrations by the leading theorists, which again allows you to put it all into the future perspective in your career. (please refer to the first 20 minutes of the introductory meeting on the job search programme on the website)
