writing of literature and philosophy Within the violence our societies must confront today exists a dimension proper to language Anyone who has been through the educational system for example recognizes how language not only shapes and models us but also imposes itself upon us During the twentieth century this system revealed how language can condemn one to a certain death In The Vocation of Writing philosopher Marc Cr pon explores this dimension of language convinced that the node of all violence pertains first to language and how we make use of it Cr pon focuses on Kafka Levinas Singer and Derrida not only because each rose against commandeering language in order to warn against the next massacres but also because their work affirms the vocation of writing that which makes literature and philosophy the final weapon for unmasking the violence and hatred that language bears at its heart To affirm the vocation of writing is to turn language against itself to defuse its murderous potentialities by opening it toward exchange responsibility and humanity when the latter fixes the other and the world as its goals The Nation ,1926 The Life and Times of Jo Mora Peter

Hiller,2021-04-20 Jo Mora 1876 1947 lived the Western life he depicted in his prolific body of visual art comprising sculpture paintings architectural adornments dioramas and maps He explored California Missions the natural glories of Yosemite California s ranch life and eventually the culture of the Hopi and Navajo in Arizona During his travels Mora documented observations that became the source material and inspiration for much of his later artwork The Architect, the Cook and Good Taste Petra Hagen Hodgson,Rolf Toyka,2007-03-29 Since time immemorial cooking and building have been among humanity s most basic occupations Both of them are rooted in necessity but both of them also possess a cultural as well as a sensory aesthetic dimension And while it is true that cooking is a transitory art form it gives expression to the periods of human cultural history just as architecture does Moreover both arts accord a central role to the materials employed Both involve measuring and proportioning shaping and designing assembling and composing This book pursues the astonishing parallels and deeply rooted connections between the art of building and that of cooking A variety of essays takes up questions of materiality and proportioning Attention will also be given to food cultivation and architecture to the places where meals are prepared as well as a range of different culinary spaces With articles by Annette Gigon Stanislaus von Moos Claudio Silvestrin Ian Ritchie and others
