Reconciliation Post Apartheid Baby:

Reconciliation Post Apartheid Baby Fikile Portia Ndlovu, 2014-12-17 This book investigates modern reconciliation perspectives of the family and community past racial divides The book seeks to highlight freedom from past apartheid stereotypes and hurts from a biblical perspective Women, Activism and Apartheid South Africa Bev Orton, 2018-10-05

This book investigates women's political activism and conflict in the struggle against apartheid in South Africa using play texts alongside interviews with female playwrights and women who worked within the theatre to examine issues around domestic violence racial abuse and women in detention without trial I Believe In Evan - My Fight to Save my Baby

from a Devastating Brain Injury and the Forces Against Us Elise Schwarz, 2016-01-08 On 18 January 2012 Elise Schwarz received a phone call that threatened to tear her world to pieces There's something wrong with Evan He's turning blue her babysitter screamed down the line When Evan was born Elise felt her life was complete She had her own New York apartment a brilliant career as a litigator and a beautiful baby boy But all that was thrown into turmoil when her only child was found to be the victim of shaken baby syndrome All evidence pointed to the babysitter with whom Elise had entrusted Evan's care In the agonising weeks and months that follow she finds herself taking on both the New York authorities who at first prevent her from taking charge of her own child and a medical establishment that seems anxious to terminate Evan's prospects as swiftly as possible But this single gay mother with a great support network of friends and family around her had the resilience to fight like a tigress for her son in order to prevent his short life being extinguished prematurely Faced with a nightmarish mix of emotions and a roller coaster of conflicting advice and agonising decision making Elise emerges a Mother Courage prepared to go to any lengths for her son This moving and compelling account told in diary form is a testament to a mother's unbending love and above all unflinching belief in her child Writing, Politics and Change in South Africa after Apartheid Christopher Warnes, 2023-06-08

This book considers South African writing for what it tells us about politics culture and change after apartheid Commissioning and Contesting Post-Apartheid's Human Rights Ulrike Kistner, 2003 The essays compiled in this book take issue with some of the directions of human rights politics in the immediate post apartheid period They look at the relationship between different sets of rights within the political contestations in South Africa To the terms of social struggles for rights and justice this book brings perspectives from narrative psychoanalysis political philosophy and medical history and from the history of national liberation struggles nationalism and citizenship Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse Nwachukwu Frank Ukadike, 2014-02-27 Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse utilizes an interdisciplinary approach to lay bare the diversity and essence of African cinema discourse It is an anthology of historical reflections critical essays and interviews by film critics historians theorists and filmmakers that signifies a dialogue and engagement apropos the ideology and cultural politics of film production in Africa The contributors are extremely concerned not only with the history of African cinema but with its future and its potential This book then is not limited to the expansion of the discourse on African cinema but tries to approach the definition of the critical canon within the exigencies and manifestations of art and African sociopolitical practices The authors view these practices as an investment in a cultural imperative stemming from the quest to delineate how critical methodologies are derived from and shape contemporary historical and cultural practices Hence the contributions are less about the usual constrictive method of analysis and more about illustrating manifestations of an interrogative critical methodology that is certainly an offspring of an indigenous African critical cum cinematic culture and paradigms

Cultured Violence Rosemary Jane Jolly, 2010-01-01 Cultured Violence explores contemporary South African culture as a test case for the achievement of democracy by constitutional means in the wake of prolonged and violent cultural conflict Drawing on and juxtaposing narratives of profoundly different kinds the fiction of J M Coetzee public testimony from the Truth and Reconciliation Commission documents from former Deputy President Jacob Zuma's rape trial and personal interviews among them in order to illuminate different cultural senses of the state of the nation and retrieve otherwise elusive descriptions of South African subjects taken from accounts of their individual lives

Towards a Transcultural Future: Literature and Human Rights in a 'Post'-Colonial World, 2021-10-18 Studying postcolonial literatures in English can and indeed should make a human rights activist of the reader there is after all any amount of evidence to show the injustices and inhumanity thrown up by processes of decolonization and the struggle with past legacies and present corruptions Yet the human rights aspect of postcolonial literary studies has been somewhat marginalized by scholars preoccupied with more fashionable questions of theory The present collection seeks to redress this neglect whereby the definition of human rights adopted is intentionally broad The volume reflects the human rights situation in many countries from Mauritius to New Zealand from the Cameroon to Canada It includes a focus on the Malawian writer Jack Mapanje The contributors concerns embrace topics as varied as denotified tribes in India female genital mutilation in Africa native residential schools in Canada political violence in Northern Ireland the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission and the discourse of the Treaty of Waitangi The editors hope that the very variety of responses to the invitation to reflect on questions of Literature and Human Rights will both stimulate further discussion and prompt action Contributors are Edward O Ako Hilarius N Ambe Ken Arvidson Jogamaya Bayer Maggie Ann Bowers Chandra Chatterjee Lindsey Collen G N Devy James Gibbs J U Jacobs Karen King Aribisala Sindiwe Magona Lee Maracle Stuart Marlow Don Mattera Wumi Raji Lesego Rampolokeng Dieter Riemenschneider Ahmed Saleh Jamie S Scott Mark Shackleton Johannes A Smit Peter O Stummer Robert Sullivan Rajiva Wijesinha Chantal Zabus

Military Training And Children In Armed Conflict Jenny Kuper, 2005 During recent armed conflicts such as those in Iraq the former Yugoslavia and Rwanda public attention was repeatedly caught by images of children both as civilians and as soldiers Those conflicts like so many others were vivid reminders that where there is armed conflict there are also almost always children Soldiers and officers fulfil many roles in relation to such children sometimes as combatants sometimes as humanitarian workers

sometimes as protectors and or sometimes as enemies and abusers This book aims to address three main questions what are the obligations of officers of national armed forces in relation to children either civilians or combatants whom they or those under their command may encounter while participating in situations of armed conflict How realistic and achievable are these obligations How can compliance with them be encouraged monitored and or enforced The book examines these questions in the context of military training In doing so it has another inextricably linked aim to see if there are ways in which the training of officers can improve the protection of children in armed conflict situations in accordance with international law and policy It is intended for use particularly by those involved in training of national armed forces including officers themselves and members of governments non governmental organisations NGOs and inter governmental organisations It is hoped that it will also be of interest to lawyers academics and others concerned with child rights and related law and policy It contains examples of actual training materials that can be modified for use in different countries and contexts

Local childhoods, global issues Heather Montgomery, 2013 This interdisciplinary textbook examines children's lives across the world acknowledging the great differences as well as points of comparison between childhoods in different contexts
