Working Hypothesis and Interpretation

What are your persuasions about the world you are going to show in your film, the main "statement" that you want to emerge out of the film's dialectics? Write a hypothesis statement incorporating this wording:

In life I believe that:

My film will show this in action by exploring (situation):

The main conflict is between:

Ultimately, I want the audience to feel:

and to understand that:

Topic

Write a concise paragraph about:

1. Your film's subject (person, group, environment, social issue, etc.)
2. The necessary background information the audience must have to understand and to be interested in the enclosed world you intend to present. Be sure to show how this information will emerge.

Action Sequences

Write a brief paragraph for each intended sequence that shows an activity. (A sequence is usually delineated by being in one location, one chunk of time, or an assembly of materials to show one topic). Incorporate the following:

1. What the activity is and what conflict it evidences
2. A metaphor to explain its subtextual meaning
3. The expected structure of events
4. What the sequence should contribute to the whole film and to the hypothesis
5. What facts the audience must gather from watching it
6. What key, emblematic imagery you hope to capture

Main Characters

Write a brief paragraph about each of your main characters. For each include:

It includes content on the Internet, writing for the Internet, Graphics and Animation.

The Documentary Film Makers Handbook Genevieve Jolliffe, Andrew Zinnes, 2006-11-14 Documentary films have enjoyed a huge resurgence over the last few years and there's a new generation of filmmakers wanting to get involved. In addition, the digital revolution has made documentaries even more accessible to the general filmmaker. Documentary films can now be shot professionally using cheaper equipment and smaller cameras enable the documentarian to be less intrusive and therefore more intimate in the subjects' lives. With an increasing number of documentaries making it to the big screen and enjoying ongoing sales on DVD, the time is right for an information packed handbook that will guide new filmmakers towards potential artistic and commercial success. The Documentary Film Makers Handbook features incisive and helpful interviews with dozens of industry professionals on subjects as diverse as interview techniques, the NBC News Archive, music rights, setting up your own company, the Film Arts Foundation, pitching your proposal, the Sundance Documentary Fund, the Documentary Channel, the British Film Council, camera hire, filmmaking ethics, working with kids, editing your documentary and DVD distribution. The book also includes in depth case studies of some of the most successful and acclaimed documentary films of recent years including Mad Hot Ballroom, Born Into Brothels, Touching the Void, Beneath the Veil and Amandla. The Documentary Film Makers Handbook will be an essential resource for anyone who wants to know more about breaking into this exciting field.

Educating for Creativity within Higher Education Phillip McIntyre, Janet Fulton, Elizabeth Paton, Susan Kerrigan, Michael Meany, 2018-07-04 This book provides innovative insights into how creativity can be taught within higher education. Preparing students for employment in a dynamic set of global creative industries requires those students to not only be resilient and entrepreneurial but also to be locally focused while being globally aware. Therefore it is imperative that they acquire a thorough understanding of creative processes and practice as they try to keep pace with worldwide digital trends. As the creation of media messages is a fundamental aspect of global creative industries and that numerous concerns practitioners face are based upon a certain understanding of creativity, the authors propose an exploration of what creativity is in terms of research and then apply it pedagogically. Drawing on extensive empirical research, the authors pose the thought provoking question of whether creativity can be taught. This volume will be of interest to both students and scholars of creativity and higher education as well as to creatively based practitioners more widely.
