The American Influence on International Commercial Arbitration

Pedro J. Martinez-Fraga, 2020-07-02 As in its first edition this book traces the contours of select US common law doctrinal developments concerning international commercial arbitration This new edition supplements the foundational work contained in the first edition in order to produce a broader and deeper work The author explores how the US common law may help bridge cross cultural legal differences by focusing on the need to address these contrasting approaches through the nomenclature and goal of securing equality between party autonomy and arbitrator discretion in international commercial arbitration This book thus focuses on the common law development of arbitrator immunity as well as the precepts of party initiative and autonomy forming part of the US common law discovery rubric that may contribute to promoting expediency efficiency and transparency in international commercial arbitration proceedings It does so by carefully analyzing among other things the International Bar Association IBA Rules on Evidence Gathering the Prague Rules and the role of 28 USC 1782 in international arbitration

Electronic Disclosure in International Arbitration

David J. Howell, 2008 International arbitration faces the challenge of the exponential increase in the volume of electronically stored information While there has been a convergence in the accepted scope of disclosure in international arbitration chiefly reflected in the IBA Rules on Evidence there is widespread concern about the potential burdens of disclosure of electronic documents with regard to the litigation experience Arbitrators are rapidly having to come to terms with these issues in an arbitration context in order to meet the needs and expectations of the parties A number of arbitration institutions are currently considering rule changes or protocols to address the disclosure of electronic documents This publication analyses the procedural practical and technical issues and addresses the appropriate approach to electronic disclosure in international arbitration including those lessons and principles that can usefully be adapted from the litigation experience Contributors include leading arbitrators arbitration counsel in house counsel and IT experts including leading experts in the field of electronic data management
